Mrs. Villie Corizzi

Dedication

A good teacher teaches, an excellent teacher makes learning stimulating. For her excellence as a teacher and her interest in her students, we, the class of 1971, proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Villie Corizzi.

A graduate of Montclair State College, Mrs. Corizzi has been teaching at Ramsey High School for 25 years, showing her loyalty to us as our Senior Class advisor, as well as working with the Junior-Senior Prom, the Senior Play and the Chemistry League.

Mrs. Corizzi's students will never forget "Mother" as one of the most refreshing teachers in the high school. Constant good humor and a genuine interest in teaching have made her classes lively and unique. The never-ending antics with fellow science teachers, and the nicknames, such as "sweetie", she gave her students will always be remembered. The quality of the performance she expects of her students reflects her own character and explains the respect she receives in return. We dedicate Nugget 1971 to her as a measure of that respect.

The young men of this land are not, as they are often called, a "lost" race – they are a race that never yet has been discovered. And the whole secret, power, and knowledge of their own discovery is locked within them – they know it, feel it, have the whole thing in them – and they cannot utter it.

Thomas Wolfe

If one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours

If you have built castles in the air your work need not be lost that is where they should be. Now put the foundations under them

MISS CATHERINE MOWERSON

Miss Mowerson, a member of the faculty for over thirty years, retired last June. A graduate of Syracuse University, she served as chairman of the business department and, in her latter years here, as a guidance counselor. She is presently residing in Cape Cod.

We are the people who have been influenced and shaped by these events and teachers.

Joe Anthony Adamo

One who enjoys music by sound Funk Joe also has found favorites in Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Baer, and Mr. Davis. Hoping to graduate and become a draftsman, he also intends to remember 10/4/78 with Babe and 1/7/79 with Babe.

Susan Joyce Ahlers

With a love of nature and the joy of experiencing life, Sue enjoys easy going people who don't impose their will on others. J.V., cheerleading, Mrs. Corizzi, Mrs. Plevan, Mr. Grief friends and 12/21/69 are among the cherished cycles of her memory. Snickering under blue skies and a peaceful world bring happiness to Sue, as she strives to be herself.

Barbara Ann Alsberg

To live life to the fullest, Barb finds a lot of fun in having fun with her friends and being herself. Striving to help others by becoming a physical therapist, Barb views her world through the music of C.S. and N. Dylan, and Simon and Garfunkle. There, sleeping and good times with the gang add to the dimensions of her contentment.

Jeff R. Anderson

Beneath his quiet exterior lies a free and friendly personality. Jeff will always remember 4/12/68, 4/16/68, 12/31/69 Mr. Butt, Mr. Terhune Warner's Shack and the R.R. tracks. His favorites include Delaney and Bonnie, Led Zeppelin, food, long blond hair, George of the Jungle, The Ratcats and Leonard Cohen. A lonely place in the woods, a girl (A.B.) and time to be alone are enjoyed.

Catherine P. Anthony

Dedicated to what she attempts, Cathy is a hardworking girl whose purpose in life is to have a good time while achieving her goals. Talking freely is most important, as is life itself. She derives happiness from the memories of Mr. Thomas, Mrs. Corizzi, and Miss Wersching, hearing Crosby, Stills, Nash, and Young, eating lasagna and from being herself.

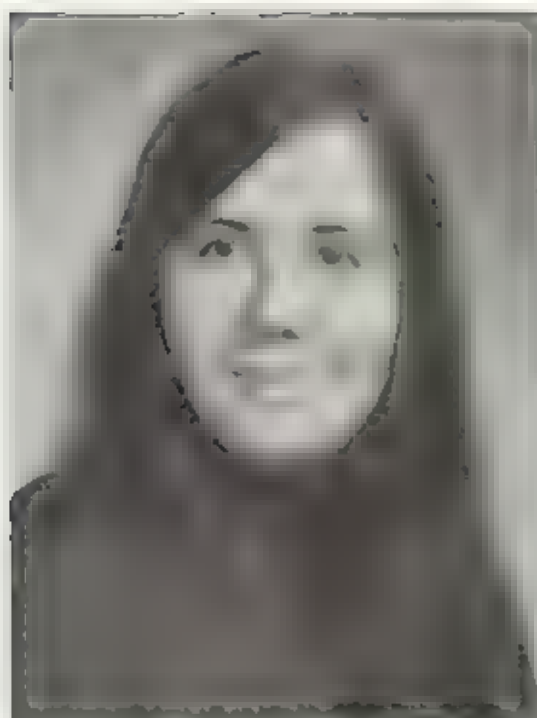

Sue Deborah Asch

"Sasch", with her glowing smile and sincere interest in people, has undergone motivating experiences at Stag Hill and with We Care. A future Vista worker, she will keep memories of Mr. Cargill, Mr. Robertson, Mr. Henderson, A.H., U.S.Y., F.L. 5, Kansas, 7/25/69 student council, and B.B. Mike as well as a taste for apples, "Old Friends", Simon and Garfunkel, and talking with people.

Barbara Kathryn Baldwin

A true friend and a true person, Barbara is always trying to make the most of life. She enjoys being with people and will never forget Mr. Christiansen's history class, J.D. M.S.U., 8/19/70, Provincetown, or beeping horns. Hoping to enter fashion merchandising, Barbara will be a very successful copywriter.

Joanne E. Barnum

Desiring to learn as much as she can in order to help others, Joanne cherishes the warmth and understanding of friendship. Ridgewood with Jean and the summer of 1970 are among her special memories of high school. Happiness for Joanne is being able to spend her summers in Wisconsin and doing the things that bring her pleasure.

Eddie Bartell

A new face at Ramsey, Eddie has distinguished himself as a true individual. The sea, sunshine, stars, the search for truth, love, and happiness are most important to him. While traveling, Ed hopes to find a purpose in living, for, as he puts it, "my time has come to face the 'real world'."

Randy Bauer

Art and music dominate Randy's life. Both will be important in choosing a career. An art school seems to be his next step in education, possibly with music as a second major. Track and cross-country with Mr. Molino will never be forgotten. Neither Mr. Burr, Miss Foran, nor Mr. Hemphill's Non-Western Civ. class will escape his memory.

Timothy B. Beach

An artist and athlete, Tim finds the beauty of life in people, music, mountains and winter. Among his favorites are soccer, baseball, Mr. Ponchak, Traffic, Baxter Tuckerman's Ravine and art. With no apprehension about leaving high school, Tim will resume his education at a college in the northeast, perhaps hoping to revert back to nature.

David R. Beatty

For one who works hard at studying, any accomplishment such as discovering a chess combination or winning a tennis match brings happiness. As Dave progresses to higher education, wishing to complete all he undertakes, fond memories of A.C.E.'s clumsiness and paper airplanes in chem league will accompany his enjoyment in exercising his rights to be an individual.

Frederick John Beddiges III

Buddy's personality is what you love it." He enjoys Liz, green and blue movies, working on cars, tuna and onion sandwiches, going out, understanding, Grand Funk and Santana. He would like to finish the "Woody" and have a lasting friendship. Buddy's future plans include a career in

Anne M. Beecher

Her big eyes and pretty smile give her much charm. The short Bunky, Cape Cod, Miss Wershing, Donovan, and all the fun with D.H. and W.E. have found places in the memory of this girl. What she is and being this person, is her happiness.

Kathleen Bennett

Kathy, who enjoys riding around in the car and going to parties, derives great enjoyment from popcorn, Ron, Austin Healy's, C.C.R., and the Temptations. Besides Long Beach Island with Ron, she will always remember '69 and summer '69 and '70. Ron, travel, and learning to drive a stick shift are some of Kathy's aspirations for the future.

Janet C. Bilello

"Short and sweet" is not a cliché when applied to Janet. Valuing the right smile from the right person, as well as her grades, her family, and her Edsel, she enjoys peace when things are quiet. As she leaves RHS to study art education, Janet will remember Mr. Grief, Mr. Smith, Mr. Christiansen, D.I. football games with the band, and volleyball.

Susanne Billek

Sue finds that having a good outlook on the world is very important. She has many memories of RHS, such as G.M. 7/11/70, Mrs. O'Toole, Mrs. O'Neill, and Miss Kruse. As she goes to college, Sue will appreciate the people who

Nancy L. Blowers

Inquisitive, an idealist, and constantly striving for perfection, Nancy enjoys music learning, and just being able to talk with people. Nancy will always remember Mrs. Freskin, Mr. Cargill, Mrs. Corizzi, Mr. Ponchak, Miss Savoca, Freud, Getman Club and that special rum cake. She desires to live in "Schwarzwald" and make cuckoo-clocks and steins.

Ann Elizabeth Bojan

A captivating smile, beautiful blond hair and exceptional twirling ability are all trademarks of Ann. Memories closest to her are of the shore '69 and '70, L.A., 4/70, and football games. Getting up in the morning and a certain person who mimics her are the only things in Ann's life that really bother her. Nursing is planned.

M. Thomas Bolster

Tom likes to be happy; this is evident to everyone who knows this fun-loving athlete. If not making other people happy, he is probably participating in a baseball or football game. When Tom goes off to college, memories of 11/26/70, Mr. Reid, Mr. Ponchak, Mr. Depuyt, ski trips, and his senior year will always be with him.

Peter W. Bossart

If you find someone asleep under the bandstand, it is Pete, dreaming of D.J., Rat B 30 69 2 4/70, or of walking over the bridge. Hoping to live a satisfying life with many benefits, having good times with good people, Peter also will value his "green stuff" and prestige.

Deborah A. Brennan

The love of friends, family, and people with pleasing personalities are important to Debbie. Traveling in the future, she will remember Mr. Ponchak, "Dil", Ratso K 11 4/70, Paul, blue roses, and talks with Keith, as she continues to feel "too good" tomorrow becomes yesterday.

Barbara J. Brinkman

Barbara, believing we are molded by who love us or by those who refuse to love us, finds happiness in having someone who cares. As she teaches nursing, thoughts of Mr. Ponchak, Mrs. Van Dyke 4/4 70 "The Who" with Karen, and Cape Cod will flash into her memories along with those special ones of her cat.

Susan Elizabeth Brown

The outdoors is mud. Sue, her camping in West Canyon, and the lake having increased her attachment to the land. Rosie and Carol as well as her happiness in being with friends will be remembered. College is planned. You don't be surprised to see Sue in the middle of nowhere as a Peace Corps volunteer.

Susan Brown

Artistic and fun-loving, Sue finds happiness in almost everything but especially art. Whirling in her kaleid scope of memories are Mr. DePuyt and Driver's Ed, Mr. Cargi summers and Sandy and Joe. Getting to know Sue and being able to laugh with her is another means through which Sue's life holds importance.

William Daniel Brown

In years to come, Bill will be one of the fastest humans, moving at 640 m.p.h., yet he is no track star. Rather, he plans to be an airplane pilot. During his Air Force career, he may pass over RHS. If so, memories of Mr. Davner, baseball '70, and Driver's Ed will return, no matter how high airplanes

Jeanne Buscher

When "Bush" returned to Ramsey, she brought with her a ray of sunshine which was welcomed back. Her long list of favorites and memories of high school includes Canada, pretzels, skiing, "People" James Taylor, the shore with P.H.S., ski adventures with P.C. and S.K., 8/26/68, Miss Kruse, Mr. Thomas, and returning. College is in her future.

Michael Bussell

At the very center of this basketball player's life is sure to be at least one beautiful woman. He lives to enjoy each day and night, especially by playing hoops and singing. Mike's best memories of RHS are those of Sheila, Anne, and Lisa. Ten years from now go to California to catch him riding the wild surf!

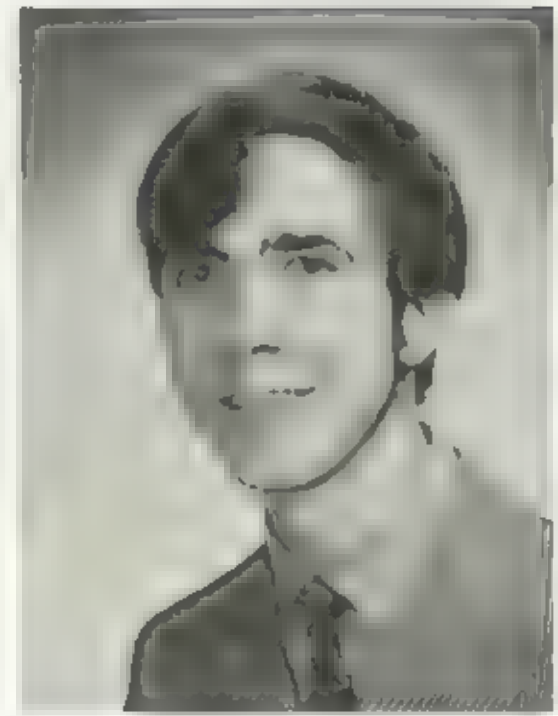

Ann Catlikka

Individuality and a great sense of humor describe "Annie", who enjoys rainy days. Both Sides Now", "Fire and Rain", sewing, and doing whatever comes to mind. Memories of Miss Kruse, Mrs. Trecker, reading, her sophomores, and her friends will remain with her as she plans a future including college, airhnes, and Switzerland as well as becoming famous.

Joanne Calderone

Although Joanne is petite, one is always aware of her presence. Spending times of happiness with Dave, Mustangs, Ten Years After, Sesame Street, the shore, sleeping, eating, and spaghetti compose the column of importance in her life. Memories of Miss Miller, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. O'Toole, 2 2/70, 1/4/70 and the second floor girls' room will follow her into college.

Dean Cartier

Remember how short Dean is? Well, someday he may be over 28,000 feet tall. Yes, this concerned ecologist wants to climb Mt. Everest. A patient of "Doc Gross Out's grossatology", he enjoys books, hiking, and friends. Dean hopes to do something benefitting mankind and securing a place for himself in history, that is, if he's not discovering a great cave in.

Lauren Charkowski

Lauren lives one day at a time, making each day count. Her goal is a happy, successful life, seeing and making others happy. A secretarial job with night college is planned as she will carry me... with lunch, a brace... the shore with her... Christmas, pickles, watermelon and Angus.

Kevin Cassidy

All cherish Kevin for his unhampered moments of excitement resulting from his serious, unceasing devotion to a thought, study, or belief. His talents range from journalistic writing for the Ram and Nugget to arguing with Mike whose last friendship, like each one, is valued. Seeking happiness at Notre Dame, Kevin will remember Mr. Burr, Mrs. O'Neill, the play Randy Mrs. Boyd and Mr. Rudin.

Mary France Christen

Striving to be at peace with her conscience, Mary aspires to help people and gain their friendship. She hopes to work in medicine now she derives happiness from her memories of Mr. Ponchak, Miss Kronke, 9 2/70, 9 3/70, 9 10/70 and of having been able to spend a year at Kansas High School. Mary finds added enjoyment in just being with other people.

Frank Comstock

To Frank, happiness is a feeling of accomplishment and satisfaction in what he does. Most important to him are his friends, happiness, "real" people, and work. He will always remember Mr. Bill M. Hemphill, The Ram, G. U. Y., Lyn, "Cory" and Kathy. After graduation Frank plans to work for a year.

Leonard W. Cress

Leonard Cress is a young man who is very outgoing and friendly. He is a member of the A. W. A. and the G. U. Y. He is a member of the "WOW" and Mrs. Val Lusk. He is a member of the "WOW" and Mrs. Val Lusk. He is a member of the "WOW" and Mrs. Val Lusk.

Robert Crow

While living, live a little. This motto best describes Robert Crow. He is a member of the A. W. A. and the G. U. Y. He is a member of the "WOW" and Mrs. Val Lusk. He is a member of the "WOW" and Mrs. Val Lusk.

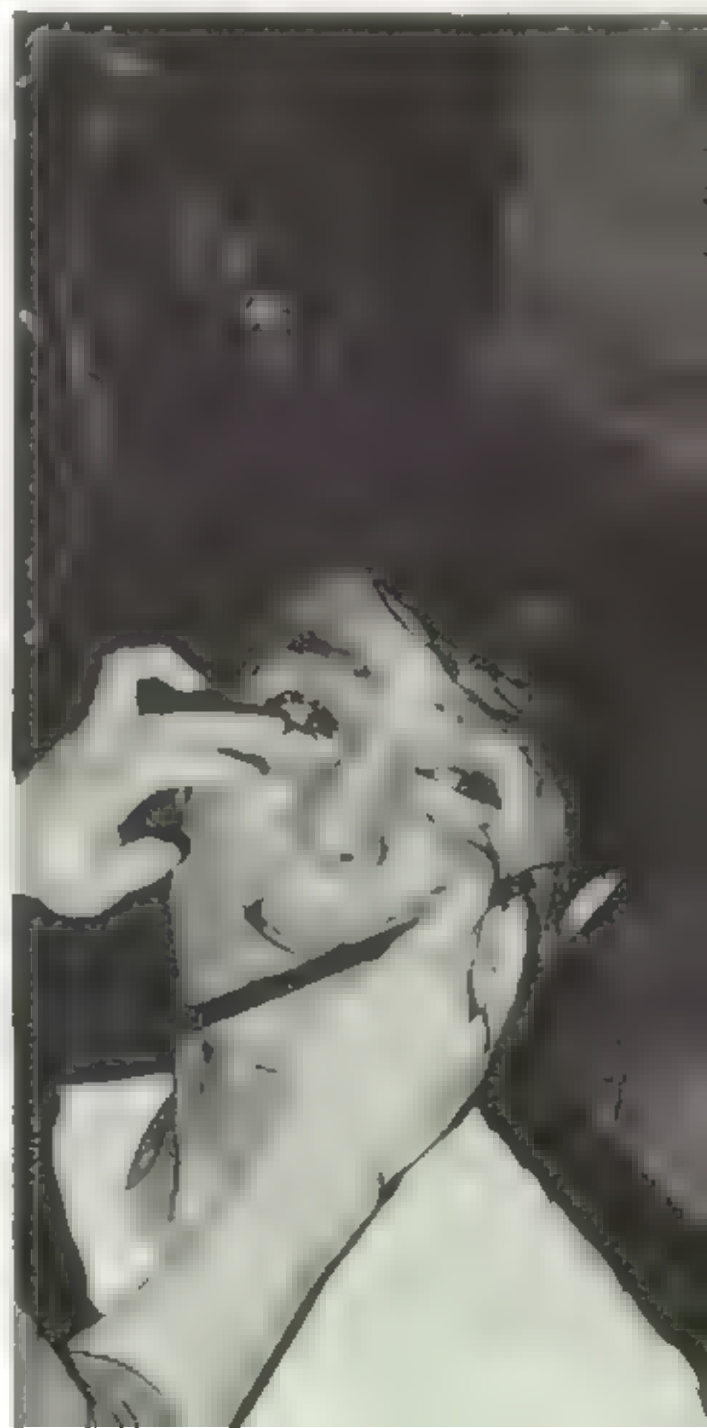

Tom Crowell

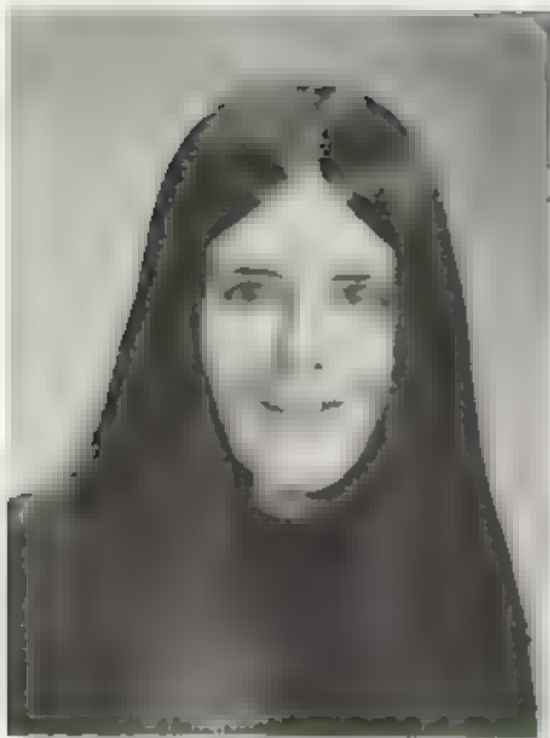

Tom Crowell is a young man who is very outgoing and friendly. He is a member of the A. W. A. and the G. U. Y. He is a member of the "WOW" and Mrs. Val Lusk. He is a member of the "WOW" and Mrs. Val Lusk.

Glenn L. Dailey

Susan Audrey Dunn

Susan Audrey Dunn is a member of the Student Body and is a member of the Student Body. She is a member of the Student Body and is a member of the Student Body. She is a member of the Student Body and is a member of the Student Body.

Scott William Ferres

Scott has come a long way in his four years at R H S. Beneath his self contained exterior is a humorous personality full of life. His interests include danglees, Joe Cockee motorcycles, old things and skiing. Miss Kruse, MSG, the cliffs, the Ramapow, and the lagoon are among his many happy memories. Scott's unique artistic ability will undoubtedly bring him future success.

Gene Ferri

A sports enthusiast, Gene values people and their sense of humor. Basketball games and golf tournaments have been much a part of his high school career, as have [redacted]. Sue Shirley, Katie and John [redacted] plans to have more enjoyment than he found in R H S. by being less int[redacted].

Laura P. Fillmore

Infinitely thoughtful, enthusiastic, creative and alive, Laura has been missed by R H S. She has found her heaven, however, in Austria, where she is learning to savor each minute she has by laughing, loving, and experiencing all she can. Laura loves Vienna, Austria, and a "humor of prominent people." Among other things, she plans to see the whole world some day.

Robert B. Finch

His wit and ability to laugh at almost anything combine to make an easygoing personality. On a typical Ramsey weekend Bob is easily spotted driving his "orange wagon" around town. In more silent moments, he eases his mind by listening to SN&Y and James Taylor.

Jeanne M. Fitzpatrick

"Fits" is one who enjoys being surprised, be it by a long distance phone call, a letter, or whatever. Memories of times during high school include summer '69, 2/21/69 studying for a Chem. test, newspaper rain hats, Hunter, and "Carmine", as well as "her sidekick". As she enters college and nursing school, summers, and the shore will always be important.

Shirley Fix

A quiet, friendly girl with a wide smile, Shirley desires to become less shy, more talkative. She is a reliable person who accomplishes what she undertakes, performing each of her tasks well. Rapping and being with people she likes are sources of Shirley's enjoyment and happiness, as have been soccer games and math with Miss Wawrzossek.

Susan Kay Fix

Sue shows her enjoyment of life with her sweet smile and lively personality. She has many fond memories of color guard, chem class, summer '69, and Miss Wawrzossek. Sue's love of life and simple things will make her a perfect nurse.

Bradley F. Flink

To Brad, an outstanding football player with a great sense of humor, happiness is leaving for the summer. Most important to him are music, friends, and being outside. After leaving high school he will continue on to college where memories of sports, and getting to know Newark, Brooklyn, and the Bronx will stay with him.

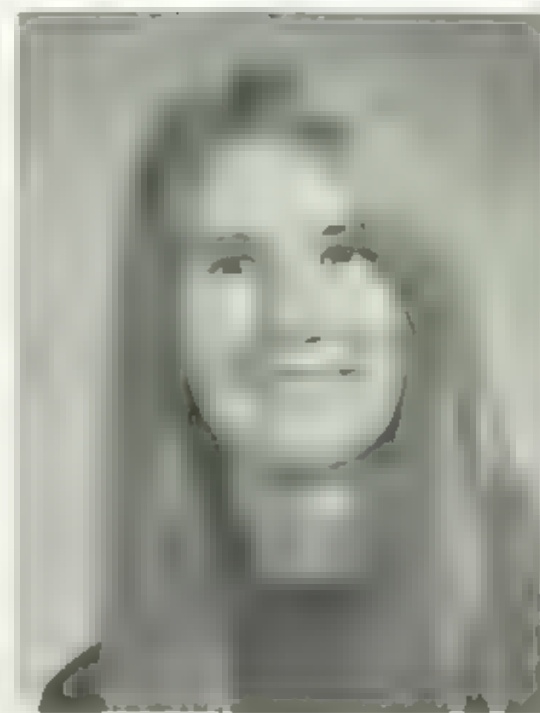

Helen G. Foresté

Outgoing, and with a love for music, theater, and animals, "Hel" hopes to save the animals of the world, making music for them like Orpheus. "La petite Moo" remembers Mrs. Corizzi, Mr. Cargill, and all the teachers she's ever had. Happiness varies from jello with chocolate-chip-mint ice cream on top to a warm puppy with a cold, wet nose.

Shirley Jo Frederick

With laughter constantly on her lips, Shirley believes "laughter makes things go better." Continuing to smile, she will remember J.A.O., Mot Snave, Mr. Burr, chem lab, Miss Ringle, and talks with M.H. Attending college to become a pharmacist is her future.

Karen Anne French

Ebullient and athletic, Karen is most happy reading a fabulous book, walking on an autumn day, or hearing laughter rebound. Mr. Ufferfulge, 6th period biology, and Wick have all left imprints on this vivacious girl to whom people's - their honesty and involvement - are most important. Karen herself wishes to contribute anything she can to make a better life.

Jim A. Fugelsoe

People and their special problems are what Jim enjoys. Among his many memories are L.M., D.G., C.G., N.B., Mrs. O'Tools, 2/7 and 4/4. True happiness to Jim would be having a 1929 Nash that runs.

Shirley J. Gannon

Love and happiness find their reflection in Shirley. Mrs. Grossman, Miss Kruse, Miss Miller, I.T., C.G., I.T. and 2/29/67 are remembered by Mutt whose future includes marrying Brian, having two children, and living at the shore. Happiness is smiling, having a cat, and Brian.

Bruce W. Gebhardt

"Flashback, the boy wonder", desires to learn how to talk. His memories include times out of school, "clear on the right Brothers 11, and the little book, while he likes football, 36, G.M., and Mr. Reid. In the future Bruce hopes to play football and become a great player.

Maria Geppert

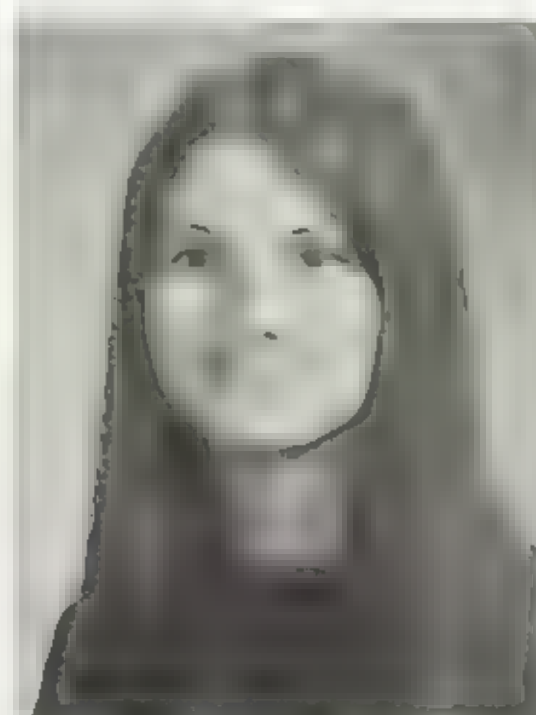

With long, golden blond hair and horn rimmed glasses, Maria is shy yet full of life and interest in other people. She cherishes the independence of the individual and the understanding and love of others. Depth in life and in people is important, just as happiness stems from seeing a "Melanie"

concert

Lisa Ann Getlin

With an enchanting personality and delightful wit, Lisa values laughing happiness, and being respected as she lives feeling her life is only what she makes of it. Mr. Ponchak, Miss Miller, "Here, Here and Everywhere," James Taylor, and cheering have become parts of this life, as have talks with Sheila, Canada, tuna fish, and Steve. College and travel will be her future expanding forces.

Barbara Lynn Gillham

Barbara, the girl with the endless long brown hair, radiates sunshine and happiness. She is a person to whom love, friends, and compassion are most important, a person for whom happiness is being with someone she loves. In high school her enjoyment has come through D.H., soccer games, July 9, 1969, New Years Eve '69, Mrs. Corizzi, Mr. Offerfilge, and from the laughter of others.

James L. Gingery

Jim has served his school well, being especially active in G.U.Y. and A.V.A. When reflecting on his four years at Ramsey, he will most remember Mrs. O'Toole, A.V.A. treats, 8-28, 11-7, N.E.B., J.A.F., band camp, and lunches. He enjoys people for their ability to help others brings him happiness.

Gary G. Glasgow

I know Gary is to fully appreciate his subtle sense of humor. Known as "The Mad Scott," he finds happiness in getting the perfect nutty buddy. Feeling relieved about graduating, he will remember Mrs. Corry, the ex-G.L., and Joe. College is in his future.

Suzette Margaret Goebel

Wishing always to be happy, "Goebel" dislikes the sadness of good-byes and the feeling of being depressed. She is cheered by listening to "Wear Your Love Like Heaven" talking to J.A., or by making someone else happy. Mrs. O'Toole, Babe and D.M. hold important places in her life. Among her fondest memories are those of Danny, nights with Flea, and summers '69 and '70.

Linda L. Good

Even though she failed gym twice, Linda will always remember Miss Miller fondly. Along with thoughts of this teacher, she will keep memories of Mr. Thomas, Mrs. Grossman, 1/6-68, and Mike. Argument and listening to other people's reactions are intriguing to her, while eating is pleasurable.

Nancy Good

Patricia Ann Goven

While always wishing her feet would grow, Pat will remember the drive in, Potter's apartment, U.S.R. with Win, long talks with Ben, 1/1/69, "The Rounds" with Fica, and football. "Putz" will enter college liking Mr. Smith, Mrs. O'Toole, yogurt, yellow and blue.

Rolf Granger

Babe is remembered for his antics in school. He was comfortable with Kip, Joe, Bones, Flea, Gobe, and Linda. Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Baer, and roast beef executives are among his favorites. Upon graduating, Babe hopes to be speeding towards California in his newly acquired panel truck.

Alan B. Grete

"Greets" is, to the amusement of his classmates and chagrin of his teachers, a very unique person. A musician himself, he enjoys the Beatles, Chicago, Lee Michaels, "Beginnings," and "Every Night". The kid HAJAB, 4th period English, Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Davies, and Miss Hertz are his favorites. Mr. Schmecker and the Mock 1 will be remembered as he tries to stay out of trouble.

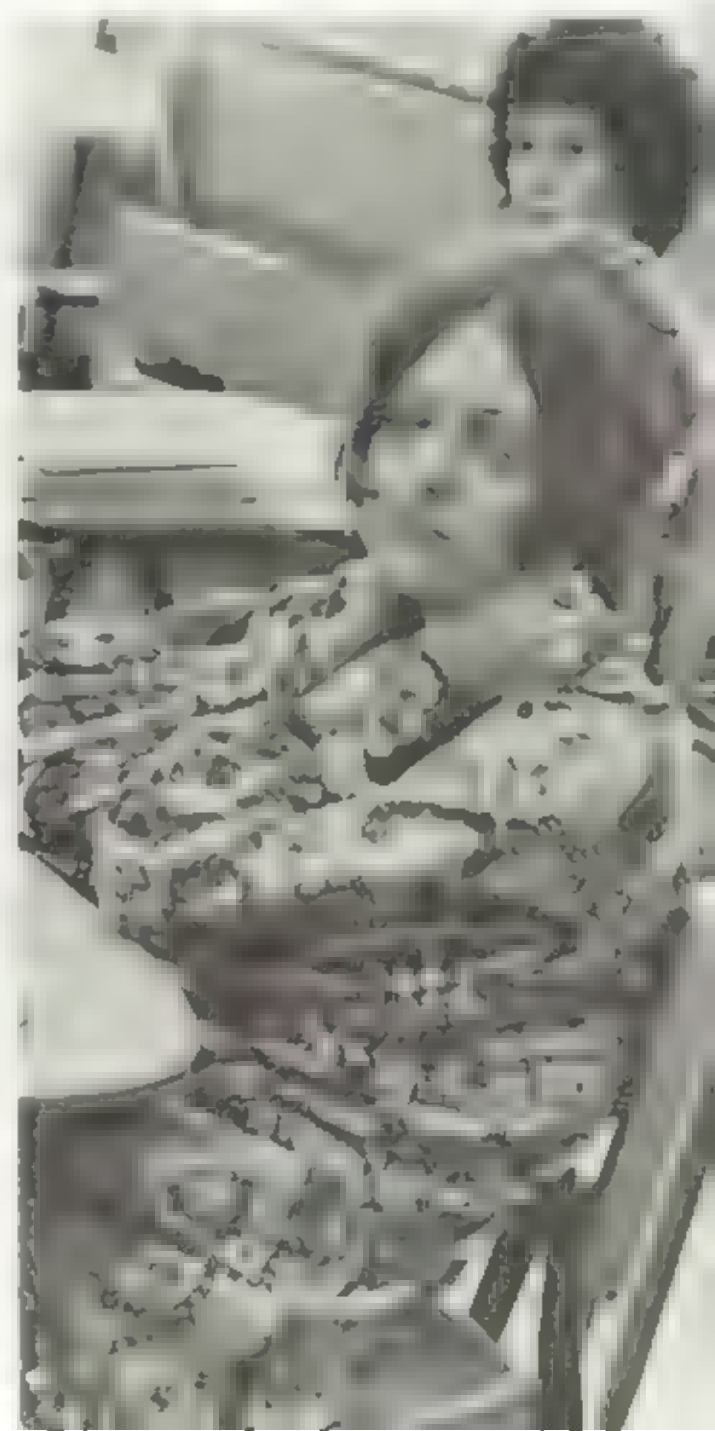

Suzanne Hamilton

Creativity and sincerity distinguish "Floozie", to whom music, Mame, Camp Laughing 10, and the country have meaning. L.F., Mrs. Dee, rapping, Barbara, The Rings, Sundays with Heiser, getting to know "Big G", the family, Pam, Pappa, and Heskett, and "Hansel and Gretel" are memories, while happiness varies from red walnuts, rain, sunsets, and CEPR to living on a farm after college.

Kurt O. Hartig

Kurt strives to get fulfillment from all he does, believing that friendship and the things worth asking for are the most important in his life. His happiness rests with good health, good friends, and security. Remembering Enza, Miss Ringle (grossout weekly), Mr. Ufferfuge, and Miss Wershing, he will go on to college at Delhi Tech, continuing to enjoy observing facial expressions.

Jeff F. Hartman

Grateful to have completed high school "Doc" will always hold memories of the "Cross Out Weekly" as well as Mr. Hemphill and his "2001" field trip. Those with trustworthiness, dependability, and a sense of humor are most enjoyed by Jeff, who values his friends, E.A. Poe, Frank Zappa, and the Third Reich.

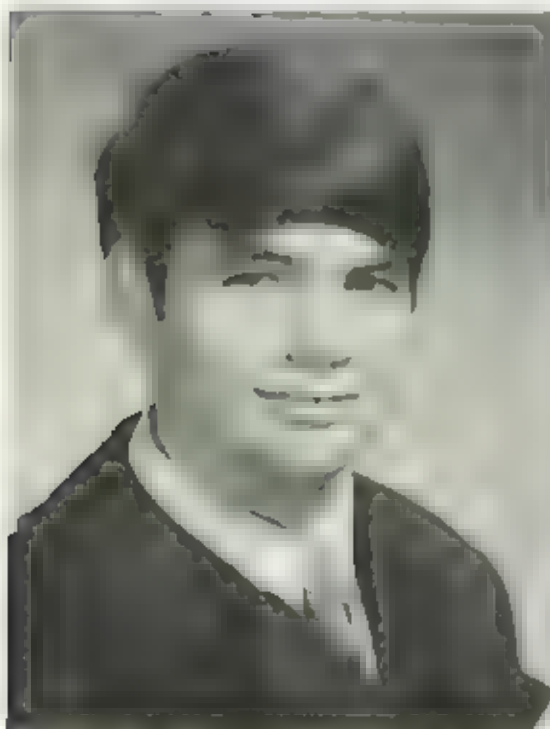

Scott Hegeman

Scott, a student, studies hard with an awe of wonder, seemingly all encompassing knowledge of math and physics. Always willing to help others, he enjoys people with sincerity. Valuing his friends, school, and food most Scott keeps memories of physics and Ray. To simply do his best will bring him happiness.

Nancy Ellen Heiser

A vivacious cheerleader, Nancy cherishes music, friends, understanding and unselfishness who can laugh and enjoy life. During Mrs. Plevin, a trip to Vermont Ocean City, and L.I.C., find their places in her memories. Skiing in early spring, sitting by the ocean, and unadmitted moods bring joy to Nancy.

John Henry Heschle, Jr.

Based his life on two ideals, to love God and His Son Jesus Christ, and to love his neighbor as himself, John lives by the philosophy of Christian Pacifism, finding happiness in everything from God. Planning to become a priest, he is to remember "Wow", Mrs. Dee, and the Third Reich.

Daniel B. Hoch

Danny, a free and easy-going person, is most noted for his shy smile. Soccer, his first love, brings him happiness, closely followed by his friends, people, and listening to Herbie. His memories of R.H.S. include the "Draw" and Mr. D., and summer. "Hoch" looks forward to college and a new life.

John Holland

Strong and silent John is an outstanding athlete in terms of ability and character. Football and track are his best memories of high school. His attitude towards sports has been incorporated into his philosophy of life, being second best isn't good enough. Most important are truthfulness, sincerity, and people with a sense of humor. John's plans include college with a little luck.

Mark Holland

Mark has shown our class the true spirit of participation and devotion, and thus deserves much recognition. His basic philosophy of life is to eat, drink, and be merry and tomorrow we'll do it all over again. For him, happiness comes with success. He just may become the happiest of us all.

Doug Henry Hollender

Carefree and independent, Doug is a day play pro soccer. Even when dribbling the ball, however, he will remember M. Murray, Miss Kruse, Mr. Groh, 11/17/69, 69 B.C., summer '69, 10-8-70, and the Country Club. He is especially fond of the Beatles' "A Day in the Life".

Susan Hough

Sparkling with a great joy of life, Sue is looking forward to a life in San Francisco. Although she derives great satisfaction from an apple in fifth period study, skiing at Stowe, Pat's chicken, or from Fran's pudding, she enjoys most both being with people and being herself.

Diane Lynn Huss

A warm, sensitive, and vibrant girl who enjoys the laughter, friendliness, and help of others, Diane is one who works to get through today and then worries about tomorrow. Boat rides with D.W., 10, and riding ski lifts with W.J. and A.B. have been meaningful and fun to this future elementary teacher, as have been Mrs. Var Dyke, Mr. Ponchak, and Mr. Utterfuge.

Joyce Hyde

True blue eyes and long brown hair distinguish pretty Joyce who enjoys sleeping, weekends, navy blue, roast beef, R.W., "Y. Keep Me Hanging On", "Suite Lady Blue Eyes", Miss Kruse, and walks in the snow. Keeping me, 13.70, Joyce plans to attend secondary school, and to be happy in the future.

Patricia Irwin

Vivacious and always smiling, Pat lives life to its fullest by being around people. First, Fran's lab, Fran's chocolate pudding, playing soccer with Robb, picnics, baking bread, having fun, and life, are happiness. Patricia Jane likes to wear fun clothes. She plans to go to college in the future.

Edward James Jannicelli

Good looking, easy going, and always smiling, Eddie likes short girls with blue eyes and blonde hair and Hello Dolly as well as spaghetti, french fries, hamburgers and pretzels. While studying electronics and having fun, he will remember Mrs. O'Toole, Coach Reid, T.B. 8-21-68, 10-10-70, and Coach Polk.

Donna Jensen

Donna, whose humor is as quick as her smile, finds happiness in making other people happy. She enjoys getting to know new people, remembering that friendship is a wonderful thing. Constantly striving to be a better person and to avoid hurting anyone. She will miss high school but will miss the friends she has made.

Steve E. Jensen

The bell to end class has rung, but one gate remains open at his desk until someone taps him on the shoulder. Outside the classroom, Steve awakens, especially in pursuing his favorite past times: girls, cars and photography. Memories include, "The Clock", 1000 Islands, Mr. Ponchak, Mr. Uffertilge, G.L., B.S., summer, and good times. Touring the U.S. is planned after graduation.

Barbra Jewell

Gentle and soft spoken, Barbra cherishes laughing, talking, touching, Scott, loving and living. Amidst occasional moments of solitude, the long talks over coffee with Miss Dicksen and how Mrs. Doe changed her life will be remembered. Desiring to rid herself of all inhibitions, Barbra finds happiness in the simplicity of a drive in her bug.

Karen L. Johnson

A companionable girl with bright eyes and blond hair, Karen enjoys skiing and riding both with friends. Although she dreaded getting up early, she does possess memories of RHS, these including the Junior Play, football and soccer games, lunch, Miss Ringle, and Mr. Ponchak. Thoughts of summer '70, Friday nights, and Ramsey will continue into her airline stewardess career.

Barbara Kellam

Pensive and sensitive, Barbara finds that love and respect of other human beings and an occasional moment of solitude in which to ponder her thoughts bring her peace and happiness. Barb remembers "Dad O'Leary", the Junior Play, German with Frau Treskin, Mrs. Corizzi, and her English teachers. She enjoys being able to share the emotions of others, especially their joy.

Bill Kelley

Bill always comes to class equipped with his sense of humor. Never will he forget freshman basketball, Mr. Davies, or Mrs. Corizzi. Planning to attend college and study podiatry, he has set his goals but hopes to have a good time while accomplishing them.

Arlene F. Kelly

Arlene, the green-eyed wonder, is happiest when with the people she loves. Among her many memories of RHS are Miss Miller, Mr. Henderson, M.T., N.M., P.G., and G.L., as well as soccer games. Arlene anxiously awaits the day she will get her license and a car. Her future plans include a career in the airlines.

Tom Kenison

The need for people and their need for you describes what Tom enjoys most about persons. Happiness to this bright-eyed, smiling, red-headed boy is doing what he wants, being content, and having success. Even while operating a tropical fish hatchery in South America, he will hold thoughts of Sue, Miss Kruse, "the great pumpkin", 3/28/70, and Miss Wawrzosek.

Stephen M. Kloeber

Taking things as they are is the way Steve lives his life. Making new friends and having a good time with them are important to him. Having enjoyed wrestling, Mr. Baer, and Mr. Hyman, he will continue to like eating and sleeping as he furthers his education.

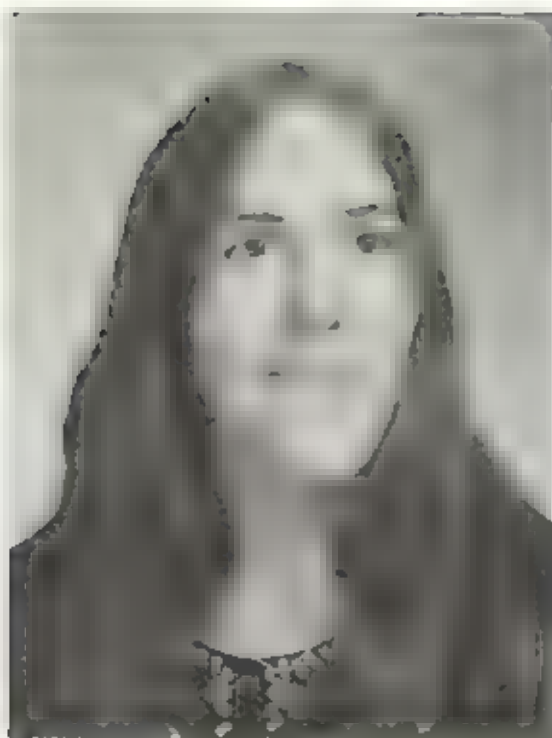

Mike Kluz

Whether cutting or on vacation, Mike managed to enjoy his high school years through either sleeping, eating, visiting the shore, going to movies, reading cartoons, or walking around New York City. His future plans include art school and traveling West.

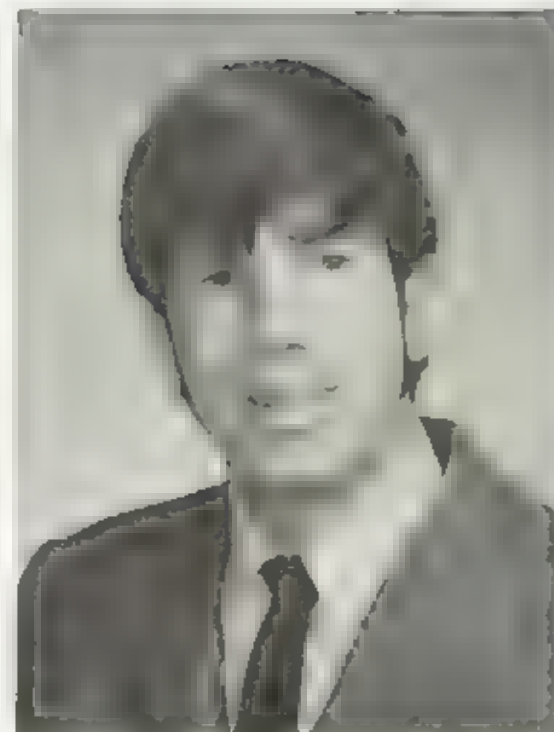

Gina Knight

A bubbly and energetic cheerleader, Gina most enjoys people with whom she can laugh, cry, and share experiences. Memories of high school include Tom, 9/12/70, Koinonia, canoe trips, the family, Sue, Mr. Henderson, "Whiter Shade of Pale", and J.D.'s house. Happiness is being away from crowds, gazing at stars, or living in a beautiful world that two people can create.

Carol Koltz

Carol, warm, sensitive, and quiet, is one who enjoys the communication and eyes of people. Seeking honest, sincere friends, she desires most peace of mind. Her memories are of Newark in the rain with J.S., L.B., and P.S., "Lady of the Island", Ken, and frisbee. To spend her life with J.C. would bring her true meaning and happiness.

William Brian Kretzmer

Humorous and easy going, Brian finds that friendship, truth, trust, and making something of his life are most important to him. Brian will never forget J.H.'s "Grossout Weekly", non-western civ with Mr. Hemphill, and card games at J.B.'s. As he goes on to college, Brian will miss the good times, and especially his friends.

Kenneth Lake

You will always find Ken with a book in his hand and a glow in his eye. Happiness to him is having a good job, much money, and being able to sleep until 1.00. He will always remember the office and Mr. Unterstein. Feeling confident in leaving Ramsey, Ken plans to attend college.

Stacey Ann Leschel

Friendly and taking each day separately, "Bagel" has memories of Mr. Mura, Mr. Ponchak, Mr. Note, 8/18/70, summer '70, and good times with friends J.T., D.C., friendship, freedom, sunshine, and people who try to better themselves are well liked. With college in the future, she plans to improve herself, making the most of life.

Jennifer Catherine Lewis

Full of life and goodness, Missy believes prayer doesn't change God, but rather he who prays. Friendliness and honesty will be important to her as she leaves RHS, remembering the third floor stairs with J.M. 6/6/68, 12/13/68, and "Happy Acres". After college this cheerleader, who has added much spark to life, will live happily in the country, or so she hopes.

Gary Little

Always joking and forever smiling, Gary takes the color of A.K.'s eyes, whoppers, Mr. Davies, Mr. Usterstein, and Mr. Usterlig. His memories will be of A.K. on 9/1/70 riding around with S.J. and P.H., Main summer '70 soccer, and talks with P.H. Gary plans to become rich, bumming around the rest of his life while desiring not to be jax.

Keene H. Lusk

Keene, sincere and hard working, will achieve his goals of companionship and education. He will remember Mr. [redacted] giving him his nickname and fun [redacted] school which include Mamm and picnics with his "cousins" After Keene plans to settle down with a miss skirted girl who makes good blueberry pie.

Barbara Ann Lloyd

Spook's secret ambition is to win a Pulitzer Prize for a non-fiction work at the age of 24. Mrs. O'Neill, Mr. Mura, Mrs. Van Dyke and green, Nancy's cookies, 3 22 9 24 69 Rav and "Mom" are all in her of these last four years.

Mark D. Lloyd

Who in RHS enjoys sports more than Mark? Probably no one. Mark lives for sports. "I've never even had a baseball bat and I've lived here when he was born. True or false, Mark's special love of athletics is common knowledge. Just ask Mr. Murray, Mr. Ponchak, any member of the baseball team, or Mark himself."

Connie Logan

Straight forward and optimistic, Connie enjoys talking and laughing with friends. Her future includes nursing, but her memories of 1968 are 11/12/69, summer of '70, skiing with G.L. and W.E., and going to the movies. W, A.T. and W.R. Important in Connie's life are her happiness and freedom.

Kathleen M. Lopez

With her good sense of humor and enjoyment of life, Kathy will most surely find happiness. Finding happiness on Friday, walking through snow, she hopes to understand herself better. Mrs. Corzani, Mrs. Simon, Mr. Utteridge, summer '70, and Darlington have become part of her memories.

Jeanne Louise Lorey

Beautiful in her bountiful smiles, serious days, and glowing interest in life, truth, and fun, Jeanne plans to love and to live. Always logical in thought, whether solving a physics, math, or chemistry problem, she intends to remember Michael, camp, chorus rehearsals, Sunday mornings with Diane, skiing with Nancy and Joanne, 3/21/70, 10/31/70, and New Milford. Her happiness lies in a ski slope, the country, and friends.

Judy Lough

Sincerity, warmth and a willingness to laugh are the traits Judy enjoys most about people. Among her memories are Mr. Cargill, the turned-on yoyo, Pinocchio Street and Wildwood with A.M., T.R., M.F. and C.C. Her favorites are blue, the shore and weekends, but Judy is turned off by thrivers, the D.Q., or washing up.

Michael Laurence Lubetkin

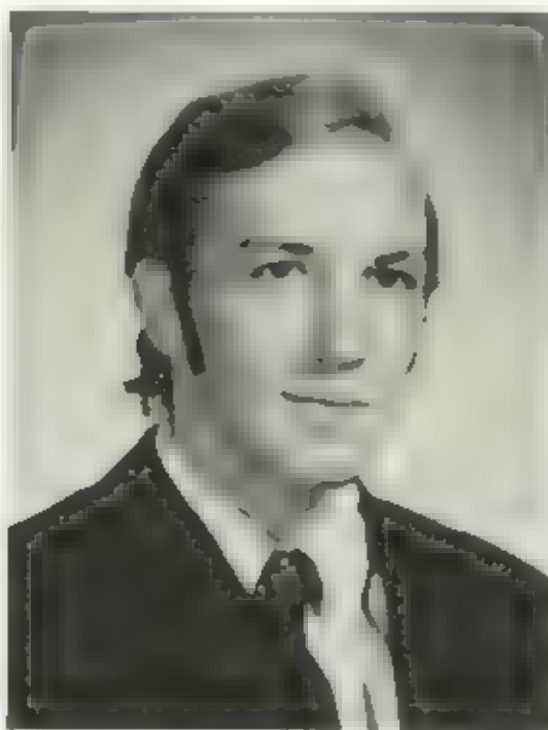

Sometimes serious, always fun-loving and often one to challenge others' opinions, Michael is open-minded in his fervent beliefs. The Nugget Staff, Jeanne, Babs, and Kevin, getting to know and understand Joanne, raps with Nancy and Steve, and summer '70 have all left imprint on his memory. As he leaves, he will miss both the fun he had and the friends he made.

Edward C. Lubieniecki

Many classes would have been very dull without "Lubi" and his wit and wit. A comfortable guy to be around who doesn't conform and enjoys others for their truthfulness. Ed will always remember Mr. Davies' math classes with Miss Wawrzosek and Randall's Island. As he searches for people with substance and an open mind, Ed will study to become an architect.

Ken Lucca

Perhaps one day Ken will be crossing the country in a limousine, but now his high school men. Ken is a member of Mrs. O'Shea, Mrs. O'Toole, Miss Kase, Peggy and 5/12/70. Ken tries his best to avoid school, gym and dances, but you will never find him passing up a steak and pizza.

Len L. Magaraci

When you people leave school, you never hear of them again. This won't be the case with "Kid Mag". To hear him again, just turn on the radio or T.V. You may see him as a baseball announcer with a million dollar salary broadcasting a Yankee pennant game, yet in all his future glory he will remember the shop teachers at RHS.

Carol Anne Mahnken

People with a sense of humor, and their eyes are cherished by Carol, to whom happiness is being able to laugh. "Mama Steve's", The Doors, Mrs. O'Toole, baked clams and tennis are prevalent among her collection of memories. Carol aspires to make other people happy and have a good time.

Natalie Adele Makowski

Always laughing and kidding. Natalie wants to make the world a better place in a small way. She will never forget summer of '68, "the screen" at Wildwood, Walton and good times with Ben. Her favorites include listening to the radio all night, the ocean and candy stripping. Nat plans to be a nurse in the future.

Judy L. Mandara

Hoping to succeed in her own terms and to be happy, Judy has enjoyed most the friends she has made in high school. Feeling confident in leaving RHS, she plans college study as well as frequent trips to the beach where she has found happiness.

Cheryl Lynn Mapes

Cheryl can be found anywhere doing most anything, but her favorites are Barry, talking to people, popcorn, Jimi Hendrix, Mrs. Packer, Mrs. O'Toole and Miss Miller's classes, homeroom talks with Carol, 9/13/68 at the fort, "the screen" at Wildwood, and good times with Nat and Sue are things that this future secretary will never forget.

Linda Marie Markana

Sincerity and kindness shine from Linda's beautiful eyes. The security of being with friends and the sense of accomplishment and freedom are her dimensions of happiness. Striving towards a better understanding of mankind, Linda desires to make someone happy and find complete contentment.

Jean-Marta E. Marone

With a friendly smile for everyone, Jean enjoys meeting and communicating with people and just being with them. Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. Simon, Mr. Winslow's fall into a certain bucket and 9/15/70 will remain among her many memories of high school. Jean tries to enjoy every minute of life believing that people make the world the world does not make them.

Paul Mathieson

"Moose", existing in a world of girls and Fords, desires to stay one step ahead of a certain unfinished blue Mustang. Wrestling Mr. Offerdige, and Mr. Hyman have meant much to him, but he could do without basketball and Chevy lovers. Freshman year, class, his little sister's problems, and the roadcourse will never fade from memory.

Susan Elizabeth McAllister

With a spinning bar and a spinning top, Sue desires to get the most from life as possible. Up to this point, Jack, Jack's majorettes, Miss Miller, Mrs. Plevan, A.B. and G.K. have all added something to her life. As she enters language study, her happiness will be derived from being with those she likes and doing something enjoyable.

Janine M. McDonald

To make this beautiful, brown-eyed girl happy, send her traveling or to a country farm. To live with mirth and laughter letting old wrinkles come is her philosophy as she values music, friends, and "Dapple White". Although feeling free upon commencing the rest of her life with college she will still remember "Happy Acres" Long Island, the third floor steps, and June 6, 1968.

Timothy J. McGrail

Always with a friendly disposition, Tim tries to have fun before it's too late but also to be serious when necessary. While traveling around the world, sking and eating, hoping never to grow old, he will remember the Gideon's Bible and the CYO convention. Having someone to talk to and to laugh with is his happiness.

Steve McLaughlin

Desirous of growing a tail and doing his own thing, Steve at times enjoys laughing at people, while he will always dislike getting up at 7:00. Finding that his purpose is to have fun, Steve's peak of happiness is a goal.

Patricia Leslie McNamee

Pat, friendly in everyway, has fond memories of Mr. Anton, Mr. Babbini, Mr. P... Tom and the shore. Often heard saying "Ask me if I care", Pat will never forget 6/22/70, 8/11/70, the shore with TR, WH and MR and feeding the ducks with Tom.

John McStravick

Robert Mehl

A quiet, sincere boy, Rob hopes to take as much of life as he can, enjoying the different personalities, styles, and ways of life found among people. His memories are of 6/4/70 Mr. Thomas, Mr. Calvano, and the other shop teachers. To be happy, free from worries, to eat steak and hamburgers, and to watch "Mission Impossible" is to live a good life.

Ruth Ellen Meredith

To be happy with what she is doing and what she has is most important to poised and poised Ruth. She will remember cheerleading, Miss Kruse, sophomore year and the people at R.I.S. Happiness is spending time with B.H. Ruth plans to go to college, teach and then leave Ramsey.

Greg M. Miller

Carefree, fun-loving and independent best describe "M.M.". Whether in school or bombing down a ski slope, Greg has learned to enjoy himself to the fullest. He will best remember the shore, Gore, parties, the night with J.P., B.C., C.V.R., B.M., P.B., at A. (We Wa and sking, Mocking, certain chairlifts, and snow banks are the few things that Greg doesn't enjoy.

Melissa Jane Monteith

A radiant smile distinguishes Missy, who enjoys meeting and being with people. Her fondest memories include Mr. Thomas, Miss Kruse, Miss Wawrzosek, Sue, Shirley, Melinda, Math III, 5/8/70, 1/20/69, shore '67, and 3/22/70. She enjoys chicken, Flip Wilson, D.Q. and shore trips with M.P., B.A., M.W., and C.A. College and Home Economics lie in the future.

Anne Moore

Anne will always remember Mr. Cargill, chorus rehearsals, Judy, Laurie, Joanne, Win, Andrews Avenue, weekends with Jo and Karen and the turned on vovo. She likes getting out early, sleeping late, Widdwood and W.B., while she dislikes math, gym, and the shrubs.

Bruce Moore

Bruce finds that not being in school is best for then he can ski as much as he wishes. Desiring to be a ski bum, of the past he will remember Gore Mt., No. 37, Tuesdays at Great Gorge, Capt. Campgaw, Chair No. 9, Chicago, Mr. Calvano, and Mrs. Dotson. Snow and the song, "Inside Looking Out" are two things that make Bruce very happy.

David Moulton

Quiet in his actions and studies. Dave is on whose treasures vary from bombing down a ski slope to being late without being grounded. He is a golfer to whom a smile sincerely means much. Among his memories are Bob, "his sister", and all close friends.

Tom Mueller

A quiet, thoughtful person, Tom is a member of the Chess Club. He has many fond memories of Mr. Coppizzi, Mrs. Treskin, Mr. "ACE" Adams, and the many friends he has made. He is a member of the Chess Club and the Chess Team.

Leonard Mulhall

Tall and lean, Len is one who emphatically expresses his opinions. He wants to enjoy life, living it as it comes and valuing that which is not of a material nature. Having had some good times in high school, he is now anticipating his departure, anxious and ready for a new and different life.

Veronica Jeanne Mulvey

Pretty and cheerful, best describe Ronnie, a girl who feels that being special to someone is most important in life. One of her joys is those who know how to laugh. Her friends are Carl, Patsy, "The Family", John, and Rich. "Never expecting anything she isn't prepared to give", her happiness lies in the love she gives to others.

Robin N. Murray

There's never a dull moment with Robin. She is a member of the Chess Club and the Chess Team. She has many fond memories of Mr. Coppizzi, Mrs. Treskin, Mr. "ACE" Adams, and the many friends she has made. She is a member of the Chess Club and the Chess Team.

Greg Muti

Like a true nature's child, he was born to be wild. Greg hopes to stay young and free, but to lead a life that will mean something to himself. A loyal and friendly person, Greg has many fond memories of Mr. Coppizzi, Mrs. Treskin, Mr. "ACE" Adams, and the many friends he has made. He is a member of the Chess Club and the Chess Team.

Steve Muzzillo

Paula Jean Napolitano

With twinkling eyes that sparkle of the blue and "You've Made Me So Very Happy" Paul" desires to continue his DQ wrestling matches, Darlington and Shoprite complete her men's school. Continuing to study, Paula plans to attend New College.

Barbara Helen Nash

Barby's talents include more than her unbelievable gymnastic ability. Looking back on her cheering, May '69, she remembers people who were always a part of night, basketball game. She takes with Nancy and Annie will return. Enjoying most people who care a lot about others, people who can really give of themselves, she also cherishes fresh air and health.

Nicholas B. Nixon

To live life to its fullest is Nick's major reason for existing. The day he began doing this, on 3/4 53, was his big day. He likes to do what he wants, a desire which includes growing a second head. A person's smell and the smell and sound of quiet make him happy.

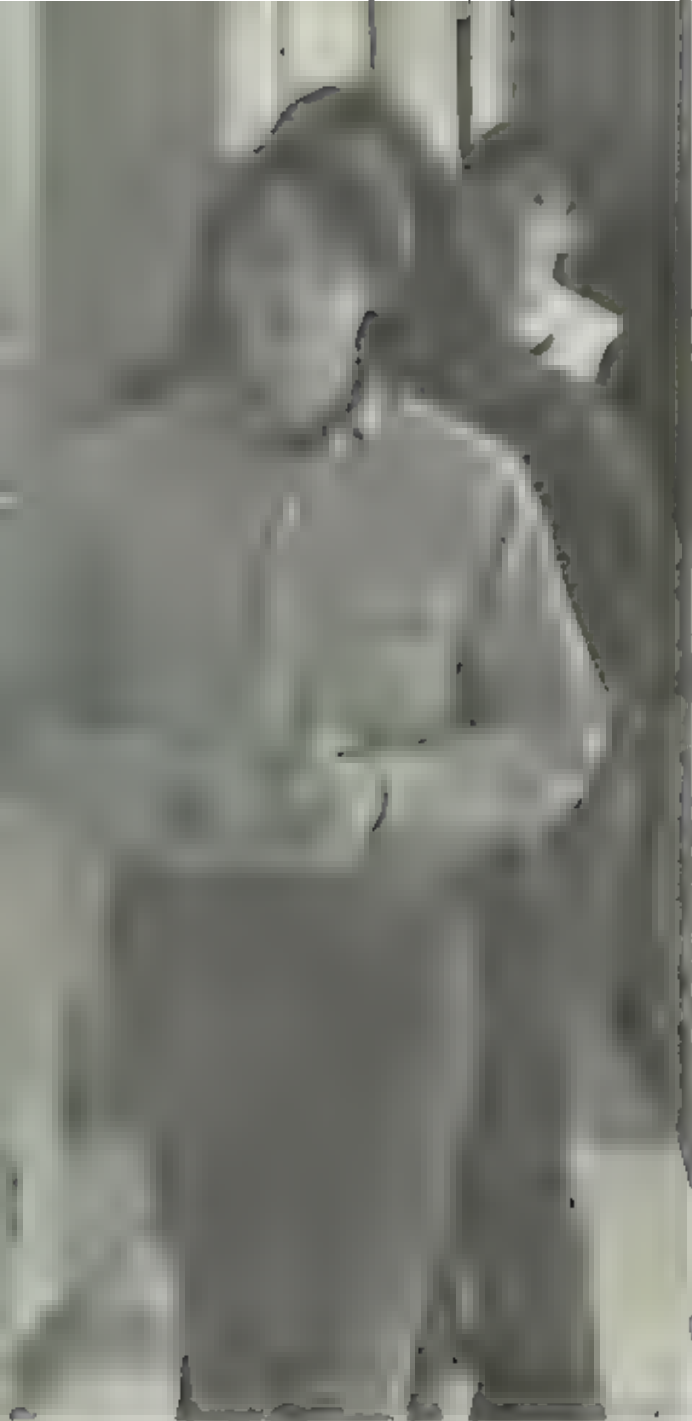

Nancy Ann Nelson

Seen always with a sunny smile to make others happy, Nancy is a friendly and friendly towards everyone, a perfect future. She derives happiness not only from cherry faces but from thorough skiing on long trails in New Hampshire, walking along the beach and in tasting strawberries.

Marianne Lesley Northorp

An added personality to the Senior year, Leslie joined us while leaving much of her heart back in California with her West coast friends. Teachers as well as acquaintances will be her strongest memory ties to high school as she enters either college or secretarial school, hoping to someday return to California.

Kathleen Mary O'Dowd

In addition to the day when there will be no pollution problem, "O'Dowd" looks forward to snow, skiing, and horseback riding. Enjoying the company, smiles, and eyes of others, she desires to travel throughout the U.S. Softball and field hockey with Mrs. Young and Mrs. Tyler. Mrs. Dee, and skiing with Sue and Shirley will remain cherished memories as she leaves high school.

Gail O'Neil

Always getting along with other people and having fun, Gail finds the most important things in her life are B.G., happiness, and a world with no more wars. She enjoys other people's opinions and the way each person dresses differently. Mrs. Cooper, Mr. Ponchak, Mrs. O'Neill, 6/18/71, 12/27/68, and three happy years of B.G. will always be remembered.

Gerald G. Onorato

Gerald plans to "make it big", secretly planning to do this by marrying a rich girl. Even after he has achieved success, he will remember Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Baer, Mr. Davies, 3/15/68, Debby, Roy, and study halls. Red, blue, and bicycles will always be his favorite colors.

John R. Orr

Just as there is almost no end to "Tiny", there is no end to his friendship, for he finds happiness in making and meeting friends. Good times include Wildwood with Cousin Willy and John, band practices, the Buckingham Dr. gang, cross country, Mr. Molino, Mr. Davies, and study halls with Floozie. After graduation, John will take life as it comes, doing what he wants and living independently.

Nancy M. Otto

Quiet in her thoughts, goodness, and love, Nancy values her friends most. Anticipating summer '71, she will not, however, forget Mr. Crum, Mrs. Cooper, Mr. Ponchak, Raz's parties, driving Katie home. Neither will 9/23/68, the happiness derived from Mike's Nomad, Saturday nights, and waterskiing slip her memory. Once graduated, she plans marriage and a family.

John Salvatore Paul Paravati

If a guy with lots of enthusiasm and sideburns greets you with a big "hello", it's John. Especially partial to guitars, pizza and music, he is always on the go, be it track, cross country or whatever. Wood and bands with J.A., J.O., and R.T. will be memories as he continues to value the ability to be free and to get along with

John E. Pasichnyk

Interested in electronics, John is one who values freedom of expression as well as honest and sincere people. He has found happiness with "Chetah", Joyce, and driving with J.V., but he also will remember Mr. Morris, summer '70, and 10/8/70. As a future navy and electronics man, "P.C." will not owe to his "Solitary Man", Zeppelin Indiana, and cheeseburgers.

Lorraine Sandra Patti

As she "follows the right eye" to the fire but excluding the fire if she can", Rainy will remember Twin, 11/28/68, Tom, and weekend vacations. Confident about leaving high school, she plans a future including fashion school and marriage. Treasuring respect and sincerity, Rainy desires to love and to be loved.

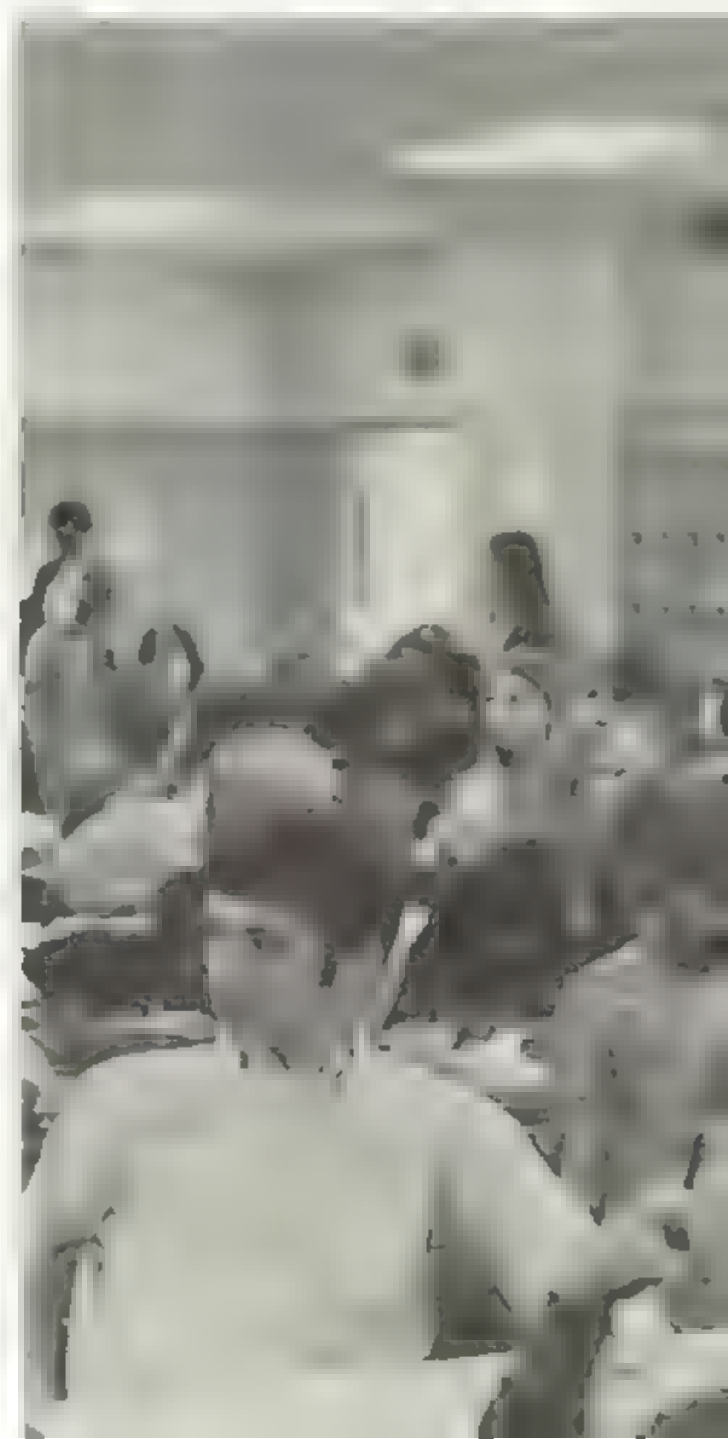

Mike Peirsel

"Yid" is one who has found pleasure from cars, the auto annex, Ford GM, and Mr. Baer as well as from Mrs. O'Toole and Mr. Wahl. Always wanting something to occupy his time, he will remember making a race horse with Mr. Baer, 9/8/70, Louis, scrabble tournaments, and fourth period English. Perhaps someday he will own a fleet of VW buses.

Carol Lynn Pepe

Carol, a bubbly character, often bursts with interest and excitement. Having established roots in Illinois with Char, she now may attend college there. Anxious to receive mail and to be happy with P.S., Sue, and friends, she leaves RHS remembering Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. Dee, and Mrs. Simon, loving "Knight in White Satin", and recollecting the day she cut her waist length hair.

Peggy Ann Pera

The puritanical yet hilarious Miss K... the Junior Play as well as a member of the Senior Play cast, Peggy has proven that... is not quiet all the time. High s... memories of getting up early, gym, eating... and, and of acting under Mrs. Dee will always remain with this... instructor. Happiness is bo... purple Challenger and watching the clouds

Gail M. Peters

Interested in life and fun, Gail enjoys happy people and appreciates a good sense of humor. She remembers Mr. C.H., P.D., 6th period gym, skiing, and George of the... gle. Her future also includes college and simply being happy

Harry Peterson

"Har" is one guy who is glad to leave RHS behind. In the prospects of graduating, he will still remember Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Baer, V.W.'s, Yaw Paw, caves and 10.24. In the future he will hopefully own a Boss 429 while continuing his education

James A. Pettit

Witty, good natured, and forever ready for a good time, Jim will always remember Ann T.B.'s parties, the soccer team, Mr. Henderson, and Miss Kruse. Liking cold duck, sarcastic jokes, and John Mayall's "California", he plans college as well as driving a certain girl crazy. Perhaps he will continue saying, "You'll get over it"

Pamela Anne Plante

With enthusiasm and friendliness Pam lives her life of sewing, fried chicken, and Buzzards Bay. High school experiences include soccer with Mr. Thomas, soccer sneakers in gym, cross guard tryouts, and spring vacation. "O will never be..." As Pam advances to nursing school she will also remember Steve and Paul and enjoying friendly arguments

James Popi

A quick mind as well as legs typify this athlete. The soccer team, in addition to... and "they have ceased playing" will never be forgotten as he enters college. Jim enjoys the reactions of others to things both said and done. His goal is to complete all he starts, doing it correctly

John Porter

An intellectual planning to enter some field of chemistry John hopes to be successful in his chosen career. Chess occupies his free time, as he will never forget beating the duffers after school. Working not too hard but rather hardworking, he will acquire his greatest happiness as a chess player.

Nancy Ellen Portner

Reverent and quiet, in her spare time Nancy likes to read to her mother and brother. She has been a member of the National Honor Society and the Future Teachers of America. As a member of the Future Teachers of America, she has been a member of the Future Teachers of America. She has been a member of the Future Teachers of America.

Melinda Suzanne Purdy

Enthusiastically friendly and anxious to participate, Melinda is most happy when she is with people who mean a lot to her. Gatherings of sincere persons and of friends with a sense of humor have been happy times. As she leaves high school, Mr. Van Dyke, Mrs. Dee, and the main office staff are her friends.

Janet L. Quakenbush

Excitable and happy in nature, Janet loves music, particularly by Grand Funk, The Who, and Flip Wilson. Content eating hamburgers and root beer, she is at times impatient, never liking to wait. Doubling with Gary and Linda, watching the hubbas with D.J., the D.Q., and 11/2 70 will compose her memories of high school times.

Barbara Ann Radtke

Barbara Ann Radtke is a member of the National Honor Society and the Future Teachers of America. She has been a member of the Future Teachers of America. She has been a member of the Future Teachers of America.

George Becket Rahal

In every group of any size, one is bound to find at least an individual with a refreshingly new and different viewpoint. Becket is this person. He feels that everyone is confusing. He proves to be frank and fascinating to know. To waste time and to go to college are Becket's plans.

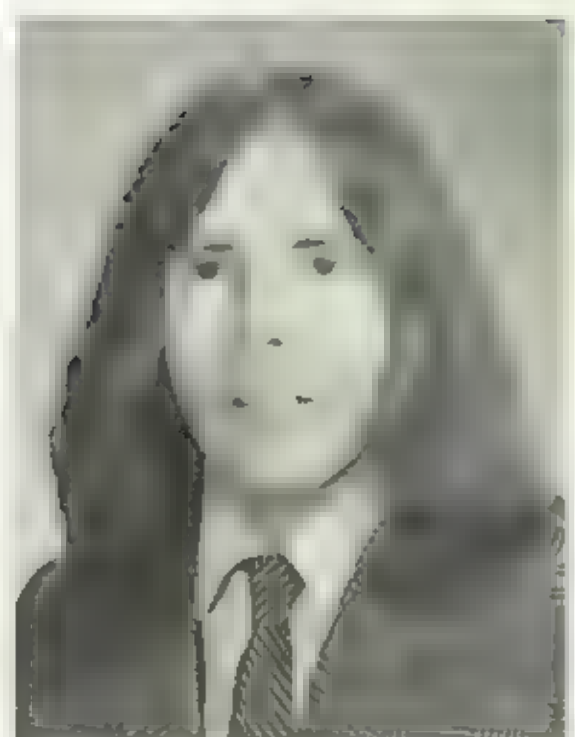

Felicia Rapp

Upset by losing things, broken promises and one big mistake, "Flea" has enjoyed Mrs. O'Toole and Mrs. Cooper, and will miss "Midnight Special", "Mean Mistreater", and chopped sirloin steak. She will carry with her memories of a certain night out with the moon, Bozky Gobe and good times with Win. as she moves on to business.

James Reev

Sports, a good education, and a good job are all important in Jim's life. Among his memories of RHS are his close friends, Miss Wawrzyszek, wrestling, and the football team. He was elected this year with the winning football season, and now he is preparing for his education.

Steve Reid

The days of the Blue Condition and block parties have past, but Steve continues to progress as a talented drummer. Gitter, J. J. Zeppelin, J. V., A. T., and R. J. are among his special memories. His greatest ambition is to make it in music. "Today the school gym tomorrow the Fillmore!"

Jean A. Reinen

A majorette whose loves vary from "Room to Move", blue, and no. 6 to Zeppelin and the ocean, Jean is one who also enjoys sleeping late. Fun and life are her goals, yet as a Spanish major she will still remember "Howard", 8/1/70, Laurie, Neal, Apr 1970, Mr. Mura, and Wildwood with JL AM-CC MI and Juniper Ave.

Katherine Ann Rennie

Full of fun, good humor, and personality, Katie desires to live life to its fullest. She will never forget summer '69 with S.F. and S.F., D.A., and I.S. Shul, Raz, and color guard. Life would be wonderful for Katie if she could get an A in physics, ski down an Alps trail, and never chew spearmint gum.

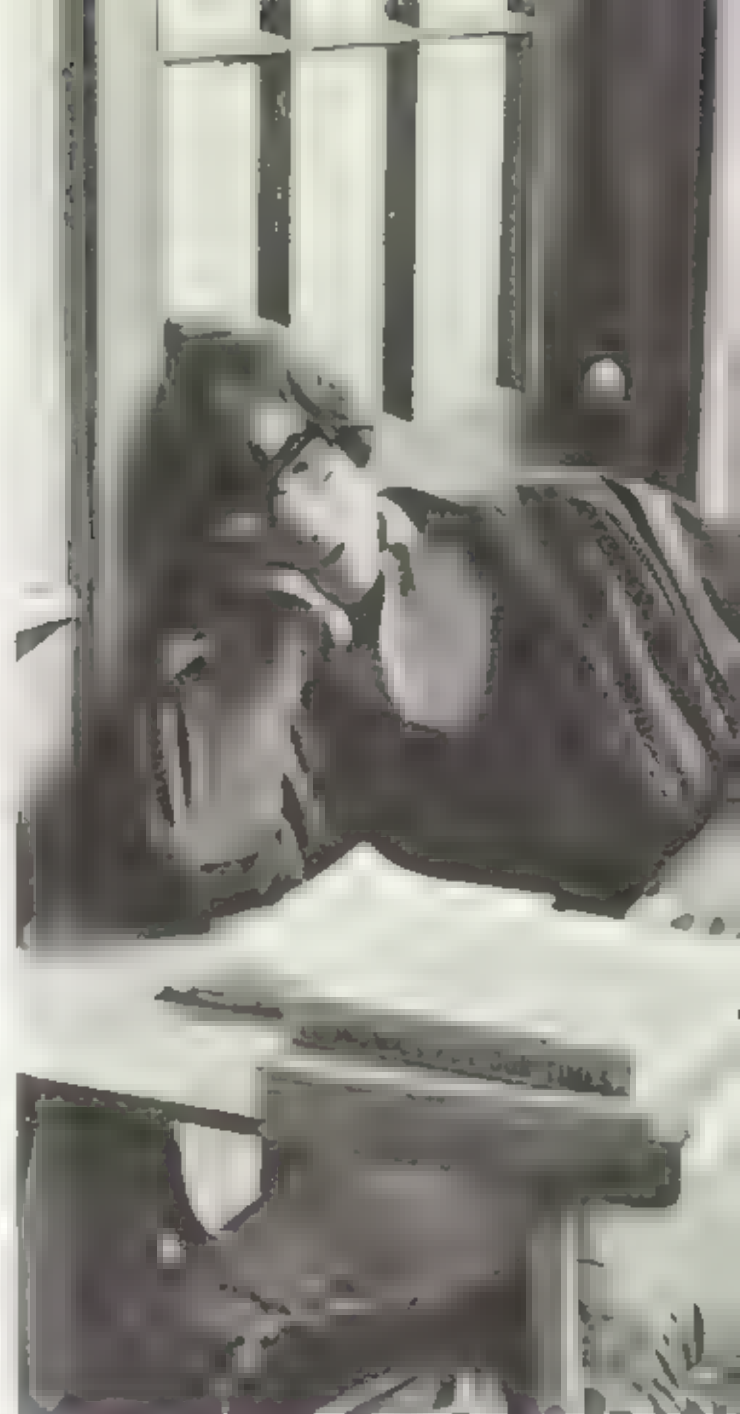

James E. Richardson

Fast cars and skiing are among Jim's favorites. To him, nothing brings him more true happiness. Wood I, Mr. U. After graduation, he will be an ever-lasting member of Ramsey. Continuing to enjoy working with people, he next plans college, but he may possibly be found skiing in Europe in the near future.

Lucy Danielle Richardson

Relieved to have completed her education, Lucy hopes to do her best in what she will be doing. She has been a secretary for a number of years, always doing a good job. She has been a member of Mr. M., Mr. Bedford, Mr. A., and Mr. I. 69, Rick, and Mary.

Michele Lynn Richardson

Teeming with fun and laughter, "Mike" is always happy on weekends, while listening to Joe Cocker, and with W.H. She is usually in good spirits unless she has to wake up early. Never will Michele forget times with club TUNA, summer '70, L.R., D.W. P.M., or I.S.

Lurcia M. Rogers

A student of the high school, Lurcia has memories of many of the teachers and staff. She has been a member of the school newspaper, the school yearbook, and has been a member of the school band. She has also been a member of the school sports team. She has been a member of the school choir and has been a member of the school drama club. She has been a member of the school dance team and has been a member of the school basketball team. She has been a member of the school tennis team and has been a member of the school soccer team. Linda Virginia Scott

Linda Virginia Scott is a young woman who is a member of the Student Body. She is a member of the Student Body and is a member of the Student Body.

Charles Seigh

Although Charles declares he would like to become more forward his wonderful quality is his sincere interest in listening to what others say. Enjoying about people their love of other persons, he will always remember Mrs. Dee, Mr. Murray, chess club Ricky and John, as he becomes trained in computer work, continuing to wear moderately loud clothes despite his quiet nature.

Kathi Anne Selmsier

Charming and beautiful with her long blond hair, Kathi is one who is both serious and fun-loving. Friends weigh the most in importance to this girl who will always remember Happy Acres, West Hampton, the bicycle shop, J.M. and D.S. as well as Cape Cod, 10/19/68, trips with T.F., and her freshman year. She now heads for college and travel.

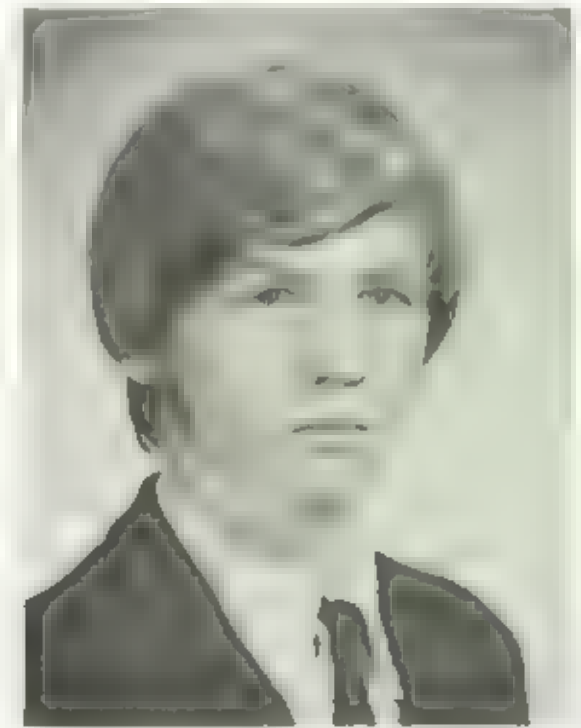

Kristi Serven

To love, to communicate and to understand as many people as she can, Kristi expresses herself as she wishes, liking the fact that everyone is different. Kristi remembers Nancy, Waterbrothers, and T.W.B., III. All things are created with a piece of life making them equal. By putting these pieces together, life becomes more meaningful.

Maryellen Shea

Forever clowning, "S.S." is a lover of grilled cheese as well as one who likes Johnny Por and ten certain people. The shore with P.H.S., 4/3, wonder class, M.D., and falling will always be memories, as she plans a future including Boston, California, and the shore.

Bob Shortman

"Shorty" likes people who are honest and considerate. After taking a trip across the U.S. on his bike, he would like to own a car and a house. When Bob thinks back on his years at R.H.S., he will remember Mr. Baer, comp classes, the 3rd floor boys room, and M. L. B. A.

Darla Jean Sietsma

Always with a smile for everyone, Darla enjoys people with a sense of humor and sincerity. Included among her memories are 1966-70, summer '70, Mr. Mahno, and Miss O'Toole. Darla lives each day as it comes, striving to help others and make them happy. She finds contentment in being with friends.

James Anthony Smardi

Being an unpredictable person, Jim has surprised many people by his actions. Known as "Strymie", he remembers "Our Gang" comedies, Mr. Smith, and happenings at Jeff's. Adventure is the key to his future, as after graduation he plans to go to the mountains, climb, and have fun on the Colorado River in a kayak.

Craig Sloss

Craig is happiest when found in perfect form on an eight foot glassy surf. Although anxious to expand his life with college in Florida, of the past he will remember the "fort", the shore, Montauk Point, Miss Kruse, and Mr. Burr. Summer and the surf will always be important to him as he tries to live as a free individual, respecting other people's lives.

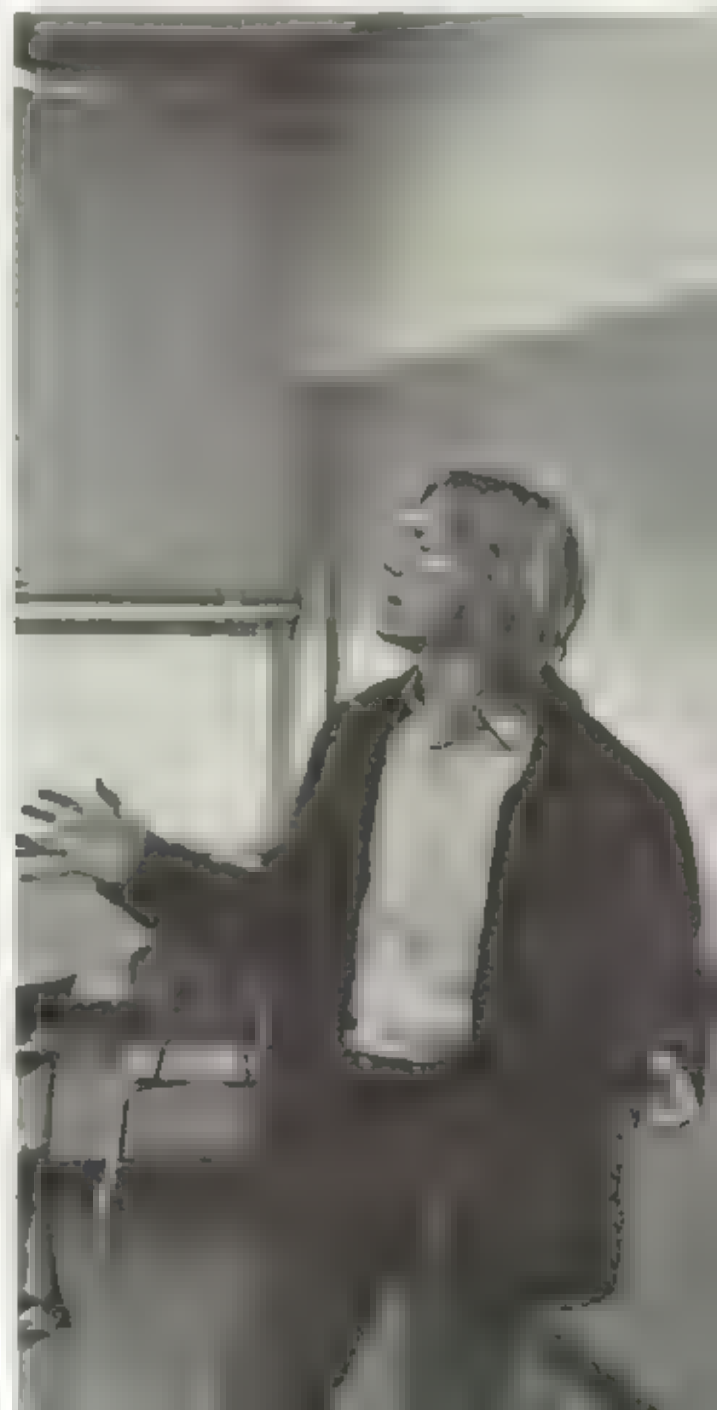

Susan Smiley

With a friendly, entertaining personality, "Sus" desires to make people happy. As she heads for social work and marriage, memories of Mahwah guys and parties 9/7/70, and talks with Michael will not disappear. Rides with Debbie, Barb, and Maureen have been fun times, as have the city, Mr. Mahno, and Miss Krus.

Robin Anne Smith

Light in build yet deep in feeling, Robin has energy and spark. Robin enjoys being active while doing wild things, roller skating in N.Y.C., surfing, skating, and anything that sounds like fun. She tries to do what she can to make others happy all of the time, for if everyone were happy, there would be peace.

Stephen G. Smith

Playing good basketball is a habit with Steve. Though his heart is on the court, he likes Mrs. Corizza, Vermont, and Europeaning with Hal manage to enter his mind. Why? Maybe it is because then Steve saw what makes people individuals, or maybe because he was with people who accepted him as he was. In either case, Steve's resulting victory was too great to measure.

Kaneko Sohma

Overflowing with good spirit and sincerity, Connie likes being in the U.S.A. The day at R.H.S. band camp, Mr. Wheeler, Mrs. [unclear], and the waterfall in Washington, N.Y. are among her memories. Confidence, freedom, and the [unclear] happiness there is in life are most important to her.

Leslie Charles Sommers

Sports minded, Les, enjoys people with a good sense of humor. "Live life day by day and don't let the past affect the present," says he who hopes to be more serious about his future. His memories include cross country, Mr. Molino, and Freshman Day. Ready for a change, he is looking forward to a change.

Richard Starr

Speeding through life in his black Mustang, Rick won't pass up girls or an education. While either water or snow skiing, he vividly recalls his summer vacations and desires to beat a certain Saddle River Chevelle. Glad to be free of the Saddle River bus, Rich now intends to go to college.

Nicole Stehle

Always pert and wide-eyed, Nickie has enjoyed spaghetti, chocolate, working on cars, summer '69, and cold, snowy afternoons. Bob, Mr. Ponchak, Mrs. [unclear], and Mr. Molino have brought times of happiness to Nickie, who wishes to live in Canada, marry the [unclear], grow a few inches, and become a secretary.

Henry F. Stokes

Hal's simple philosophy is to revert to natural ways. Enjoying people who make him feel comfortable, he will remember Mrs. Dee, Mr. Ackerman, winters in Lake Placid, England with Steve, the shore, parties, and some times with R.B. Planning to attend college in the Northeast, he hopes someday to be a wealthy [unclear].

Deborah Marie Storms

Carefree, but at the same time sincere, is the best way to describe Debbie, who feels friends are an important part of her life. The cabin, Janine, the winter, and Long Island are among the things she will always remember. After graduation from RHS, Debbie will feel even freer than she already is and will continue with college.

Patricia Susan Strasser

Pat, one who loves the peaceful beauty of the world, cherishes freedom, places, and the laughter, honesty, and sincerity of people. Prejudice, destruction, and death draw negative attitudes, while running through a daisy field at sunset, watching children, and communicating sincere feelings of joy. Music of Richie Havens, Art Guthrie, and Judy Collins add to this serene sentiment that Pat loves.

Barbara Ann Stryker

Doing the things she enjoys with the people she likes pleases Barb, who will remember Art III, fourth lunch with Kevin, and driver's ed. as well as 1/12/68, about '70 with C.B.D., left hand turns, guys in Ohio, and mustaches. She looks forward to a career in the fast new world of marriage.

Elizabeth Thompson Sullivan

Liz is the blue-eyed vivacious blond whose sparkling, friendly smile amazed many in her sophomore year. Her world of happy memories includes Buddy, 11/22/69 lobster dinner, the shore, and visits with old friends. Liz desires to own a car, visit California, and remain with F.B. always.

Ray Szwed

True happiness will come to Ray at the end of this school year. Thinking back on his years here, he will always remember Mr. Ponchak's classes, both years, Mr. Calvin, and Mr. Csencsits. After college he hopes to become successful in the business of his own.

Maureen Elizabeth Tarrant

Comic and at times rambunctious, Maureen the Leader" is one to whom Buddy Mile "Our House", spaghetti, and Mr. Offerfilge bring happiness. Of high school experiences she will remember P.O. Nanny, 7/17, Mahwah, nights out with the group, the shore, and Steak and Brew as she advances into her future.

Janice Carolyn Terhum

Often seen keeping statistics for the baseball team, Janice is a person who will always remember Paula, D.Q., Mr. Layton, Mr. P., and the night of the Dark Shadows. In the future she would like to find out why boys are afraid of her father. Her father has a sense of humor and a sense of duty.

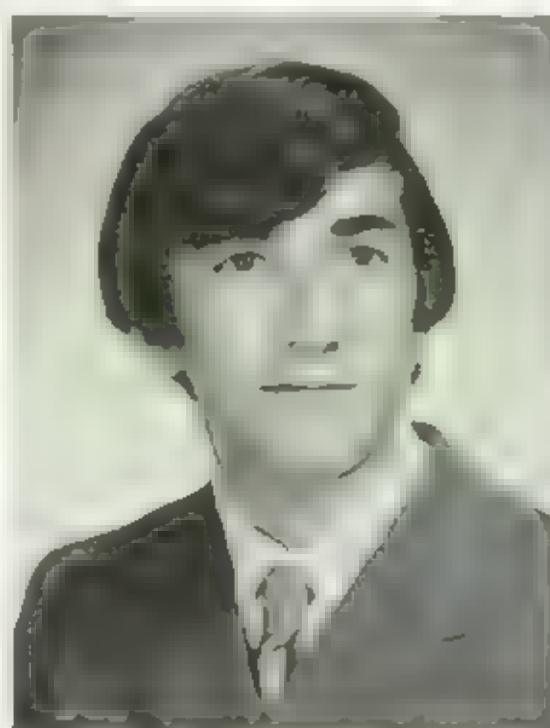

Scott Thomas

Thoughtful, intense, and energetic, Scott believes that books and learning from other people are necessary. He enjoys being able to share his ideas and finds that happiness is having fun. The only thing that is at last sacred is the integrity of his own mind.

Frances W. Tisserand

Cherishing fun and being free, doing what she feels is right, Fran enjoys people with a sense of humor. She will always remember Long Beach Island, the summers of '69 and '70, R.H., G.S., 9/9, 7/2, the trip to Hawaii, Mr. Schell, Mr. Dayner and driving with L. J. and W. K. off. Fran finds that happiness is having no problems to worry about.

Jim Tolisano

Known for his wise opinions and authoritative voice, Jim is his own man, cherishing his freedom to act, to decide, to love life, and to become knowledgeable. Respecting those who accept others as they are, who avoid triviality, Jim feels that happiness is something that just occurs. His future is in journalism and broadcasting, yet he still will remember Mr. Van Dyke, The Ram and the plays.

Erica Tomanek

Honesty, friendliness, and a bright smile are several of Ricky's outstanding characteristics. Flying kites with Butch, hiking in the snow, good health, and happiness are all valued by her. As she goes on to school and marriage, she will remember 10/2/69, Miss Kruse, R.R.A., sharing B.T.'s locker and working in the dark room.

Barry Torres

Whether playing soccer, the guitar, talking or listening, Barry is a stimulating person to know. As he grows older and wiser he will experience as much as he can with people and music, striving to become a combination of Stills, Garcia and Clapton. His thoughts and memories will rest with Mrs. Dee Monday Moons, G. M. and I. P.

Sheila Marie Trahey

Bubbling with sincerity and laughter, "She values respect from others. Always remembering talks with Steve, Dan, and Chris, summer '70, bicycling with Lisa Lake Checks", Chris' party, K.H., and 5/18/68, she plans nursing school. Mr. Ponchak, Miss Miller, Mr. Polito, James Taylor, "Fire and Rain", and a guard will remain favorites.

Jim D. Trifilio

A man who lives up to his beliefs and convictions, Jim finds great happiness in doing what he wants to do when he wants to do it. He'll never forget finding the book Walden in the halls of RHS. After high school he plans to go to college and hopes to find freedom and solitude.

Alan Trover

Alan, well known for his fantastic guitar playing, desires to play as many instruments as possible and to be a successful musician. He will always remember the Blue Condition, D.B., M.R., Nassau, and good times at practices. Among his hopes is the wish that more people will open their eyes and look around themselves.

Robert A. Ueckerman

A man of winning ways and a man who enjoys going to games, the Fillmore, girls, Lee Michael, Mr. Burr, and Mr. U. Honest people who speak their minds are best liked. As he yearns to pass to the Fillmore and attend a Miller concert with L.F., some of RHS years will be 6/29/70, Wildwood, and R.K.'s parties.

Richard Van Derhoff

Rich, one who enjoys the friendliness found in people, pass his free time by skiing or wrestling. Some day during college or the rest of his life he may be seen with long hair and a beard, but definitely with his own car. In addition, there will be memories of Mr. Duffertige, July 8, 1970, and Mr. Murray.

William S. Van Horn

Personality plus, sincerity, and a winning way with people are assets "Willie Boy" just can't hide. Mr. Burr, Miss Wawrzonik and Big Patti are memories, as well as his times with friends. Cherishing an orderly world, he wouldn't mind getting lost at sea to escape confusion. With a definite way of his own and a ready laugh, Bill will surely succeed.

Debora Ann Van Iderstijn

One who likes to sing, play, and hear music. Debbie cherishes the beauty of life found in nature, poetry, and in sharing experiences, problems, and friendship with others. "To be happy is to be free to walk on a quiet beach, to talk to the stars, to just look at the beauty of the world and see it remain unspoiled." Her future includes college teaching, and remembrances of Mrs. Pievan, Mrs. Dee, and summer '70 at the lake.

Carl Van Rooyen

With mischievous blue eyes and a distinguished, fun loving laugh, Carl has a witty perception that will leave many puzzled but happy. Extremely wary of schedules and routines, he enjoys being with people especially friends. Mom and apple pie. Plans for leaving the country as an adventurous Carl upon graduation.

Ruthann Verduin

A bright eyed majorette, Ruthann "lives for today", valuing the happiness and understanding the world, along with the honesty and sincerity of its people. Beach Haven and the coffeehouse, Kallington ski sojourns, and Miss Miller have all been good times. Happiness to her is being among a crowd of friends all enjoying each other, all rapping together.

Frank G. Villani

Often heard saying "Who me?", Frank desires to ride across the country on a bike. While peddling along, thoughts of Mr. O'Toole, Mr. Baer, Mr. Murray, 9/28/69 the shore '69 and '70, and 1/1/69 may interrupt his attention to the countryside. Lasagna, spaghetti, and steak will appease his hunger especially after riding the California surf.

Richard Vitzthum

Kathleen D. Vogel

Sensitive and excitable, Vogel attempts to live each moment to its fullest, disregarding tomorrow. Enjoying traveling, be it tooting around with Wally, dunebuggying with J.C.M., or as a future social worker, she wants to see what life is all about. Someday winning the LeMans in a VW may bring happiness, but now a warm thumb, orange juice, and chocolate milk does the trick.

Charles F. Von Dreusche

In a quiet wood away from the hassles of life, one will find Charles content and silently dreaming. Back in school an ideal day would include classes with Mr. T. and Mr. Burr, and an unforgettable fourth lunch. The quaint Pennsylvania country side and an autumn day exemplifies the beauty and happiness that Charles desires in life.

Nanci Waldron

Always bright, always fun, and always hungry, Nanci likes all food, Mr. Henderson, Mr. Thomas, Mrs. O'Toole, James and Livingston Taylor, and skunk. She best remembers shore trip '70 with J.H., P.H.S. Mahwah, 12, 30-69, good times with B.R. M.T., L.H., and S.S. and Healy's apartment. "This isn't for me!" or "I'm hungry" are frequent comments. Call her "Waw-Waw" but never call her "T.T."

Amie Walker

Summer '68 and '70 as well as Sue, Eileen, wheels, Frank, Chris and Atlantis have all meant much to Amie, who is active in her search for fun. Her future includes junior college, work as an airline stewardess, and perhaps fulfillment of a desire to attend Drew and Princeton University, Boston, Connecticut, and New Hampshire.

Julia B. Weatherly

Hoping to experience much as she enjoys life, Julia likes talking and listening to people. Moving from Michigan was a step she will never forget when she enters college. Her happiness is in being around friends and in doing things she enjoys.

Jane R. Wicker

The future is bright for Jane Wicker, a young woman with long dark hair, who is a member of the cheerleading squad. She is also a member of the school band and is a member of the National Honor Society. Jane is a member of the school's student council and is a member of the school's debate team. She is a member of the school's chess team and is a member of the school's swimming team. Jane is a member of the school's tennis team and is a member of the school's basketball team. She is a member of the school's soccer team and is a member of the school's volleyball team. Jane is a member of the school's track and field team and is a member of the school's cross country team. She is a member of the school's golf team and is a member of the school's tennis team. Jane is a member of the school's basketball team and is a member of the school's volleyball team. She is a member of the school's soccer team and is a member of the school's volleyball team. Jane is a member of the school's track and field team and is a member of the school's cross country team. She is a member of the school's golf team and is a member of the school's tennis team.

Mary Louise Williams

Like her name, Mary is also sunny and cheerful. With a liking for Mr. Thomas, Mrs. Coruzzi, hamburgers, and fried rings, she will remember the shore DQ., Ridgewood, "The Fish Express" Melinda's parties, Missy's p.j. party, and college is in her future.

Tim Williams

Tim Williams is a young man with dark, wavy hair, who is a member of the school's student council and is a member of the school's debate team. He is a member of the school's chess team and is a member of the school's swimming team. Tim is a member of the school's tennis team and is a member of the school's basketball team. He is a member of the school's soccer team and is a member of the school's volleyball team. Tim is a member of the school's track and field team and is a member of the school's cross country team. He is a member of the school's golf team and is a member of the school's tennis team. Tim is a member of the school's basketball team and is a member of the school's volleyball team. He is a member of the school's soccer team and is a member of the school's volleyball team. Tim is a member of the school's track and field team and is a member of the school's cross country team. He is a member of the school's golf team and is a member of the school's tennis team.

Susan S. Williams

Susan S. Williams is a young woman with long dark hair, who is a member of the school's student council and is a member of the school's debate team. She is a member of the school's chess team and is a member of the school's swimming team. Susan is a member of the school's tennis team and is a member of the school's basketball team. She is a member of the school's soccer team and is a member of the school's volleyball team. Susan is a member of the school's track and field team and is a member of the school's cross country team. She is a member of the school's golf team and is a member of the school's tennis team. Susan is a member of the school's basketball team and is a member of the school's volleyball team. She is a member of the school's soccer team and is a member of the school's volleyball team. Susan is a member of the school's track and field team and is a member of the school's cross country team. She is a member of the school's golf team and is a member of the school's tennis team.

Deborah Wilson

Shining with happiness and friendliness, Debbie likes pickles, popcorn, sleeping, and Pepper. She will always remember Beach Haven, Walton, summer '70 and P.A.P. Life. She will be easier for her without swimming and gym class. Debbie will travel and be happy.

Raymond L. Winslow

Out of school, Ray wants to major in the arts of sleeping and doing nothing. Even though he is relieved in leaving RHS, he will always have pleasant dreams of Mr. Baer, Dad, auto, art, K.N.B., and R. If he is mooring too loudly, just bring in Tull, Cocker, or V.P. Agnew. Ray will gladly wake up for them.

Lorraine Wood

"Woody", full of fun and with a heart of gold, is successful with horses, sports, and music. Band camp, the Bossart crew, and the band exchange concerts will always be in her memory as well as Miss Miller Tyler's terrors, and "Fran" Woody's desire to enjoy life to it's fullest. Lorraine is loved by her 1970 Datsun 240 or by racing in the Indy 400.

Judy Yei

Spontaneous, fun, and a true musician, Judy likes people when they are themselves. One who enjoys playing guitar, Richie Havens "Woodstock", the Mets, and Afghan hounds, Judy will always remember M. Bednat, band, Brothers-in-Song '70 7/26/70, Margie, and a garage band. Judy will further develop her life around music. Indeed, music is soothing to her soul.

Stephanie Ann Zolto

Stephanie is a living example of the saying "good things come in small packages". Her interests at RHS include home economics, Mrs. Koch, Biology I with Mr. Winslow, freshman English, and tennis with Katie. Happiness is making Mike happy and driving in a certain 1931 Chrysler. Nursing school and growing are in her future.

Cy Zuckerman

Cy is definitely a runner. He has been a member of RHS, for he loves running and will never forget a great meet '70 and 3 34 7. Friendly himself, he likes others to show this trait. His future includes college remembering Mr. Ufferfilge, Mr. Molino chemistry with Mr. Coruzzi, and track, as well as owning a monkey.

CLASS HISTORY

With feelings of grandeur and glory, the class of '71 entered R.H.S., only to be reduced to the stature of frosh. Confusion and a sense of minuteness replaced the air of being, at last, high school students. The upperclassmen seemed so huge, all-knowing and menacing, especially on that famous day - the last of the freshmen days to be held at Ramsey. The dominance of our elders was certainly illustrated in the few mishaps that occurred.

We adjusted to our way of life, trudging up to the third floor lockers every day and fighting for survival on the lunch lines; and as we grew more at home, even we began to wonder what happened to the fountain in the courtyard. Life at high school was revitalized every now and then with hat days, sock days, blue and gold days, and clash days. Soon, we, too, got into the spirit.

On a snowy November night we were awed by the seniors in the performance of their play. Would we ever produce a play as successful as Take Her She's Mine? Yes, we had much to work for and much to anticipate; our high school years were just beginning.

With a year of experience and a set of exams behind us, we entered our second year in R.H.S., knowing what routes to take and feeling much more knowledgeable than the new year's freshmen. Yet we, too, became confused again by the novel rotating schedule. How wonderful it felt to miss a class every six days! Although we may have wished to be elsewhere, the newly painted orange, yellow, and blue lockers also added some cheerfulness to going to class, and a new soda machine quenched our thirst during free study periods.

This was the year of big-scale productions. The football team was again outstanding in the defeat column, while the basketball team's record was 15:7. The English department embarked on mass field trips, carting hundreds of students to various plays and movies. In the spring the band sold chocolate bars and took a subsequent trip to Delaware. The administration proved to be quite liberal, permitting the wearing of shorts as well as shoes without socks.

Then we became upperclassmen, entering our busiest and perhaps most important year of high school. For some, it was a year of testing - PSAT's, National Merits, SAT's, and Achievements, a year when more could be determined about our future, while for others it was a time to begin searching out a position in the working world. It was also a year to earn money for the class. Led by Al Lewitz (president), Hal Stokes (vice president), Nancy Portner (secretary), Sue Asch (treasurer), and our advisor Miss Grillo, we conducted the customary Christmas card sale. Problems were plentiful, yet as always, we pulled through with a profit. Prom bids were also sold, and the gala affair was held in the spring to the theme of Aquarius. The outstanding success of the year, however, was the production of our play, Don't Drink the Water. So hilarious were Mama Fillmore and Papa Corso that the near-record audience reeled with laughter throughout the play. All doubts vanished for those who wondered whether we could have a great dramatic success.

This was also a year of new freedoms and different restraints. Last period studies were cherished, for then we were free to leave school early. Towards winter, we were given the privilege of sleeping later if our study fell first in the morning. We were finally able to wear pants to school, winters became warmer, and school more relaxed. Some of us acquired our wheels of freedom, adding to the upperclassmen status brought on by our rings.

After such a year the class was growing closer together, looking forward to the chance as seniors to rule the school, repeating a winning basketball season and continuing our winning football streak. Perhaps luck was with us, for we had managed victory in that final football game against Mahwah.

How great it felt to be seniors at last, especially in a year of football success, yet how confusing and tormenting at times to think that in less than a year we would all be heading in different directions. For many it was a time of questioning and wondering, a time to ready for the commencement of our new lives. Graduation and all its details had to be arranged, however, and so, under the guidance of Scott Ferres, Hal Stokes, Nancy Portner, and Sheila Trahey, we attempted to earn money to finance the yearbook and other June expenses. Again the class showed its talents in dramatics, as Kevin Cassidy led the cast of Enter Laughing to an outstanding success.

It took much change, many new experiences, plus encounters with varying philosophies and attitudes to reach this point in maturity. Now as we realize our commencement, we have an infinite number of new experiences, people, and thoughts ahead of us. As we continue to grow as individuals, we will always remember R.H.S. as a meaningful and memorable part of our lives.

LAUGHING

People say that lightning doesn't strike twice in the same place, but here's a case for the books. Back on some forgotten date in 1963, ENTER LAUGHING opened on Broadway to rave reviews, TIME'S "Broad, boisterous fun" label being a good example.

Seven years later on December 11, 1970 ENTER LAUGHING opened again, but this time it didn't appear on Broadway. It appeared on Main St., Ramsey as the RHS Senior Class Play, and was a fantastic success. It saw a 1200 seat capacity auditorium filled to standing room only. It saw a profit of $800; a height rarely reached in RHS theater. Mrs. Willie Corizzi, Senior Class Advisor, saw such a stupendous achievement that she said, "It was a wonderfully delightful and charming comedy. I truly enjoyed it."

And why not? ENTER LAUGHING'S cast had Broadway quality actors who provided their audience with such an off Broadway show, that hit Broadway shows played before half filled theaters.

FIDDLER'S ROOF collapsed
APPLAUSE got booed
HAIR went bald
THE ME NOBODY KNOWS remained unknown,
And HELLO DOLLY waved Bye Bye.

This year the Student Council undertook the task of accomplishing projects that would be new and beneficial to the students. The traditional Teacher Appreciation Week, dance and movies were in addition to the experimenting with ashtrays in the laboratories and the sponsoring of an A.C.L.U. lawyer to speak with the students and answer their questions on legal matters.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The sense of honor is of so fine and delicate a nature, that it is only to be met with in minds which are naturally noble, or in such as have been cultivated by good examples, or a refined education.

We weren't given much for this
We've left our lives at home
Our family, few friends aren't here we chose to come
We've only got the little things that can't be stuffed in suitcases we left behind important things and only brought ourselves.
The lighter things they let us keep we brought a year's supply of things that last eleven months, things we couldn't buy
A year's supply didn't weigh too much but yet they can console us
the tallest tree that's stroked with sun and whisper of its leaves
the water rushing over rocks
to its secret destination
There's no beginning, Life no end!
it cries in exultation
Eyes that see the shrivelled face of youth now robbed by age
that's wrinkled more by Life than Time
by Love, by Sorrow, Rage
Eyes that marvel at a child and wonder at a child
Behold the beauty of the land
in its majesty grown wild
We only brought a pair of rats and the magic of Love and weep when pain is near There's something else we brought along that can't be seen or weighed
It thrives upon a thing we call life and drinks it every day
Magic powers held in her that make you cry or grow
when you long for friends' security and you find yourself alone
It dreams the dreams of hopeful youth and fabricates the goals
It wonders, it waits, and spreads in Love
It makes us all that we are
We brought some important things but someday we shall see that Love is people anywhere and Happiness is free!

THE GENERAL ORGANIZATION

The General Organization, consisting of students as well as teachers and administration members, regulates the financial procedures of the school. Clubs, classes and other organizations handle their financial matters through the treasurer of the G.O., Mr. Caputi. A further responsibility of the General Organization is to approve the school budget for extra curricular and athletic activities.

Working with energy and enthusiasm bright smiles, happy faces rested on their faces and Mr. Davner was the center of it all.

It was a time of
 a time of decision

It was a time when home - the yearbook was the center of it all.

A scene of laughter, tears, thought exultation and sleep

It was a full time job
 to get the 'work' Blurbs to write, copy to do to get the 'work' out to get the 'work' out! Deadline!
 A meeting or sleep, overnight meeting
 Neither power failures nor snow could stop us.

In April 1977, Miss Susan Weiss, who used to be a student at an institution in Japan, The United States and now in her home.

A black and white photograph of a dense forest. Sunlight filters through the canopy of trees, creating a bright, hazy glow in the upper center of the image. The tree trunks and branches are silhouetted against the lighter background, creating a complex, web-like pattern. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

This marks the closing of one chapter in our lives.
The close of this chapter, the starting of new one.
We have reached an end, but it is truly only a beginning.
A book of life which contains numerous pages and unlimited possibilities.
Fill your book the best you know how, value each page and do not become trapped in one chapter.
Each page is a reflection of the previous one, each blank page open for new things.
When your story does come to an end, look back and know that you have left an imprint.
